26 investigate:

27 (a) plausible allegations of factual innocence;

28 (b) newly discovered material evidence; or

29 (c) information discovered or received by the prosecution agency after 30 trial, judgment of conviction, or sentencing that:

33 bility that the result would have been different; or

34 (ii) significantly calls into question the legitimacy of the jury 35 verdict, judgment of conviction, or sentence.

36 2. A conviction integrity unit may review a conviction or sentence if 37 the conviction and sentence:

38 (a) (i) occurred within the judicial district of the establishing 39 office; and

40 (ii) was prosecuted by the establishing office or another prosecution 41 agency under the direct control and supervision of the establishing 42 office; or

45 supervision of the establishing office;

46 (ii) (A) the prosecution agency that prosecuted the case has not 47 established a conviction integrity unit; or

48 (B) the prosecution agency that prosecuted the case has established a 49 conviction integrity unit but determines that review of the conviction 50 or sentence should be conducted by a conviction integrity unit estab-51 lished by another prosecution agency; and 52 (iii) the district attorney, county attorney, attorney general, or 53 other prosecutor that directly oversees and supervises the requesting 54 agency requests the review.

1 3. (a) An individual convicted of a crime may submit an application to 2 a conviction integrity unit requesting review of the individual's 3 conviction or sentence as provided in subdivision two of this section.

4 (b) If a convicted person submits an application for review of a 5 conviction that resulted in a sentence of death, and the application is 6 submitted to any conviction integrity unit other than a conviction 7 integrity unit established by the office of the attorney general, the 8 conviction integrity unit that receives the application shall forward 9 copies of the application to the office of the attorney general and to 10 the convicted person's current counsel of record.

11 (c) If a conviction integrity unit other than a conviction integrity 12 unit established by the office of the attorney general, undertakes any 13 review of a conviction that resulted in a sentence of death, the 14 conviction integrity unit shall send the findings and recommendations 15 promptly upon completion to the office of the attorney general and to 16 the convicted person's current counsel of record.

17 (d) If a conviction integrity unit other than a conviction integrity 18 unit established by the office of the attorney general discovers or 19 receives any information relevant to a conviction that resulted in a 20 sentence of death, the conviction integrity unit that discovers or 21 receives the information shall promptly notify the office of the attor-22 ney general and the convicted person's current counsel of record.

23 4. The form of the application for review and its contents shall be 24 determined by the establishing office.

25 5. Once the review is complete, the conviction integrity unit shall 26 present its findings and recommendations to:

27 (a) the district attorney, county attorney, attorney general, or other 28 prosecutor who directly oversees and supervises the establishing office; 29 or

30 (b) if the review was requested by another prosecution agency under 31 paragraph (b) of subdivision two of this section, the district attorney, 32 county attorney, attorney general, or other prosecutor who directly 33 oversees and supervises the prosecution agency that requested such 34 review.

35 6. The district attorney, county attorney, attorney general, or other 36 prosecutor who directly oversees and supervises the establishing office, 37 or who requested review under paragraph (b) of subdivision two of this 38 section, is not required to accept or follow the findings and recommen-39 dations of the conviction integrity unit.

40 7. The district attorney, county attorney, attorney general, or other 41 prosecutor who directly oversees and supervises the establishing office, 42 or who requested review under paragraph (b) of subdivision two of this 43 section, may commence a civil proceeding by filing a petition in the 44 superior court with jurisdiction over the case seeking a court order to:

45 (a) vacate the conviction;

46 (b) vacate the conviction and order a new trial;

47 (c) vacate the sentence and order further proceedings; or

48 (d) modify the conviction or sentence.

49 8. The decision to petition the superior court under subdivision seven 50 of this section is solely within the discretion of the district attor-51 ney, county attorney, attorney general, or other prosecutor who directly 52 oversees and supervises the establishing office, or who requested the 53 review under paragraph (b) of subdivision two of this section.

54 9. Except as otherwise provided in this part, a petition filed with 55 the superior court shall comply with the provisions of this chapter, and 56 shall include the number of the underlying criminal case that resulted

1 in the judgment of conviction or sentence in connection with which the 2 petitioning prosecutor seeks relief from the court.

3 10. If a petition is filed under subdivision seven of this section the 4 petitioning prosecutor shall promptly:

5 (a) notify the convicted person, in writing, that the petition has 6 been filed and provide the convicted person with a copy of the petition 7 and all other documents filed in support of the petition;

8 (b) notify the victim or the victim's representative, if any, in writ-9 ing, that a petition has been filed, provide the victim or the victim's 10 representative, if any, with a copy of the petition and all other docu-11 ments filed in support, and advise the victim or the victim's represen-12 tative of the victim's right to be heard by the court under subdivision 13 thirteen of this section; and 14 (c) if the underlying conviction was a felony offense, notify the 15 office of the attorney general, in writing, that the petition has been 16 filed and provide the attorney general with a copy of the petition and 17 all other documents filed in support.

18 11. If a petition is filed pursuant to subdivision seven of this 19 section, the office of the attorney general has standing to intervene as 20 of right and to participate as a party in the superior court proceeding 21 if:

22 (a) the convicted person submitted an application under paragraph (a) 23 of subdivision three of this section requesting review of the person's 24 conviction or sentence by the conviction integrity unit;

25 (b) the conviction integrity unit undertook review of the convicted 26 person's conviction or sentence as a result of the convicted person's 27 application; and

28 (c) the office of the attorney general reasonably believes the relief 29 requested by the petitioning prosecutor would be barred if the petition 30 were filed or the relief were requested directly by the convicted 31 person.

32 12. Upon review of the petition, the superior court may:

33 (a) dismiss the petition as provided in subdivision fourteen of this 34 section;

35 (b) require that additional evidence be submitted;

36 (c) conduct an evidentiary hearing; or

37 (d) grant the relief requested by the petitioning prosecution agency, 38 or any other relief expressly permitted by this part, if by a preponder-39 ance of the evidence the petition presents:

40 (i) bona fide and compelling evidence that the convicted person is 41 significantly likely to be factually innocent;

42 (ii) bona fide and compelling newly discovered material evidence; or 43 (iii) bona fide and compelling information discovered or received by 44 the petitioning prosecution agency after the trial, judgment of 45 conviction, and sentencing that:

46 (A) if disclosed to the convicted person prior to trial, judgment of 47 conviction, or sentencing, would have resulted in a significant proba-48 bility that the result would have been different; or

49 (B) significantly calls into question the legitimacy of the jury 50 verdict, judgment of conviction, or sentence.

51 13. If the court requests additional information or holds an evidenti-52 ary hearing, the convicted person, and the victim or the victim's repre-53 sentative, if any, and, if notice to the office of the attorney general 54 was required under paragraph (c) of subdivision ten of this section, the 55 attorney general, shall have the right to be heard by the superior 56 court, through written submissions or testimony.

1 14. A superior court may dismiss a petition without a hearing if the 2 court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the petition fails 3 to assert grounds on which relief may be granted.

4 15. In granting relief under this part, the superior court may:

5 (a) vacate the conviction;

6 (b) vacate the conviction and order a new trial;

7 (c) vacate the sentence and order further proceedings; or

8 (d) modify the conviction or sentence.

9 16. The superior court shall state on the record the reasons for the 10 court's decision.

11 17. (a) An appeal may be taken by the petitioning prosecutor from a 12 final order entered under this part.

13 (b) If notice to the office of the attorney general was required under 14 paragraph (c) of subdivision ten of this section, the petitioning prose-15 cutor shall consult with the attorney general prior to filing an appeal 16 and, if an appeal is filed by the petitioning prosecutor, the office of 17 the attorney general has standing to intervene as of right and to 18 participate as a party in all appellate proceedings.

19 18. Attorney fees, costs, orders of restitution, or any other form of 20 monetary relief are not available under this article.

21 19. Nothing in this section:

22 (a) precludes a conviction integrity unit from reviewing a conviction 23 or sentence based on information discovered or received directly by the 24 establishing office or received from an individual other than the 25 convicted individual;

26 (b) prohibits an establishing office from adopting additional written 27 criteria for the convictions or sentences the establishing office will 28 review or will decline to review; or

29 (c) requires a conviction integrity unit to review any conviction or 30 sentence.

31 20. Nothing in this article:

32 (a) including review by a conviction integrity unit or the filing of a 33 petition under subdivision seven of this section, may operate to stay 34 any other proceeding, or to extend, toll, or otherwise alter any other 35 deadline or limitation period under the provisions of this chapter;

36 (b) may revive a claim or cause of action or implicate a defense 37 otherwise available to the state under any other provision of this chap-38 ter, or any other applicable provision of law; or 39 (c) confers standing or creates a private right of action for a 40 convicted person or victim of a convicted person.

41 21. Relief under this section does not exclude any other available 42 remedy.

43 § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after 44 it shall have become a law.
