CONCURRENT RESOLUTION OF THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY

proposing the addition of a new article 20 to the constitution, in relation to providing for recall of a statewide elective officer

1 Section 1. Resolved (if the Senate concur), That article 20 of the 2 constitution be renumbered article 21 and a new article 20 be added to 3 read as follows:

ARTICLE XX

RECALL

6 Section 1. Recall is the power of citizens to remove a statewide elec-
7 tive officer. These include the offices of governor, lieutenant gover-8 nor, comptroller, and attorney general.

9 § 2. (a) Recall of a statewide officer is initiated by a registered 10 voter filing an affidavit with the state board of elections of his or 11 her intent to initiate a recall of a statewide officer. Intent to initi-
12 ate a recall shall include a reason for recall. Sufficiency of reason is 13 not reviewable. Proponents have one hundred twenty days from the filing 14 of the affidavit of intent to file sufficient petitions. The affidavit
15 may be filed no sooner than six months after the beginning of the term 16 of office.

17 (b) A petition to recall a statewide officer shall be sufficient when 18 signed by registered voters equal in number to at least twelve percent 19 of the total vote for the office in the previous election, with at least 20 two thousand signatures from each of the state's congressional 21 districts. Sufficient petitions shall be certified by the state board 22 of elections.

23 (c) The state board of elections shall maintain a continuous count of 24 the signatures certified to that office.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 § 3. (a) An election to determine whether to recall a statewide offi-2 cer and, if necessary, to elect a successor shall be called by the 3 governor and held not less than seventy days nor more than eighty days 4 from the date of certification of sufficient signatures.

5 (b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) of this section, a recall election
6 may be conducted within one hundred eighty days from the date of certifi-7 cation of sufficient signatures in order that the election may be 8 consolidated with the next general election.

9 (c) If the majority of voters vote in favor of recall, the statewide 10 officer is removed, and, if there is a candidate, the candidate who 11 receives a plurality is the successor. The statewide officer being 12 recalled may not be a candidate.

13 § 4. If recall of the governor is initiated, the recall duties of that 14 office shall be performed by the lieutenant governor.

15 § 5. The legislature shall provide for circulation, filing, and 16 certification of petitions, nomination of candidates, and the recall 17 election.

18 § 6. A statewide officer who is not recalled shall not be reimbursed 19 by the state for the officer's recall election expenses legally and 20 personally incurred. Another recall may not be initiated against the 21 statewide officer until six months after the recall.

22 § 7. Costs incurred by county boards of elections for operating the 23 recall election shall be reimbursed through the general fund of New York 24 state.

25 § 2. Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the foregoing amendment be 26 referred to the first regular legislative session convening after the 27 next succeeding general election of members of the assembly, and, in 28 conformity with section 1 of article 19 of the constitution, be 29 published for 3 months previous to the time of such election.
