AN ACT to amend the arts and cultural affairs law, in relation to the  ${\tt Amistad}$  Commission

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 57.52 of the arts and cultural affairs law, as 2 added by chapter 404 of the laws of 2005, is amended to read as follows: § 57.52. Amistad commission; established. 1. The Amistad commission 3 (commission), so named in honor of the group of enslaved Africans led by Joseph Cinque who, while being transported in eighteen hundred thirtynine on a vessel named the Amistad, gained their freedom after over-7 throwing the crew and eventually having their case successfully argued before the United States Supreme Court, is hereby created and estab-9 lished. The commission shall consist of nineteen members, including the secretary of state or his or her designee, the commissioner of education 10 or his or her designee, and the chancellor of the state university of 12 New York or his or her designee, serving ex officio, and sixteen public 13 members. Public members shall be appointed as follows: four public 14 members, no more than two of whom shall be of the same political party, 15 shall be appointed by the temporary president of the senate; four public members, no more than two of whom shall be of the same political party, shall be appointed by the speaker of the assembly; and eight public 17 members, no more than four of whom shall be of the same political party, 18 shall be appointed by the governor. To the extent practical, appointed 19 20 members shall be chosen with due regard to broad ethnic diversity and 21 shall have a demonstrated educational background in the history of the 22 African slave trade and slavery in America or the contributions of African-Americans to our society. The public members shall be residents of 23 the state, chosen with due regard to broad geographic representation and 25 ethnic diversity, who have an interest in the history of the African
