Introduced by M. of A. BARRETT -- read once and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means

AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to the treatment of excess tax credits for the rehabilitation of historic barns

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph 12 of subsection (a) of section 606 of the tax
2 law, as amended by chapter 672 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read 3 as follows:

4 (12) Rehabilitation credit for historic barns. A taxpayer shall be 5 allowed a credit, to be computed as hereinafter provided, against the 6 tax imposed by this article. The amount of the credit shall be twenty-7 five percent of the taxpayer's qualified rehabilitation expenditures 8 paid or incurred within the five years immediately preceding the year in 9 which such tax credit shall be applied with respect to any barn located 10 in this state which qualifies as an historic barn pursuant to subdivi-
11 sion five of section four hundred eighty-three-b of the real property
12 tax law. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "barn" means a build-13 ing that is or was used as an agricultural facility or for purposes
14 related to agriculture. Provided, however, such qualified rehabilitation 15 expenditures shall not include any such expenditures which are included, 16 directly or indirectly, in the computation of a credit claimed by the 17 taxpayer pursuant to paragraph one of this subsection. Provided further 18 that no rehabilitation credit shall be allowed for any rehabilitation of 19 a barn which, immediately prior to the commencement of such rehabili-20 tation, was used for residential purposes, or which converts a barn not 21 suitable for residential purposes into one which is so suitable, nor 22 shall a rehabilitation credit be allowed for any rehabilitation that 23 materially alters the historic appearance of the barn. If the amount of 24 credit allowable under this subsection shall exceed the taxpayer's tax 25 for such year and the taxpayer's New York adjusted gross income for such

1 year does not exceed sixty thousand dollars, the excess shall be treated 2 as an overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with 3 the provisions of section six hundred eighty-six of this article, 4 provided, however, that no interest shall be paid thereon. If the 5 taxpayer's New York adjusted gross income for such year exceeds sixty 6 thousand dollars, the excess credit may be carried over to the following 7 year or years and may be deducted from the taxpayer's tax for such year 8 or years.

9 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
