AN ACT to amend the criminal procedure law, in relation to bail and domestic violence charges

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 510.10 of the criminal procedure 2 law, as amended by section 1 of subpart C of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2022, is amended to read as follows:

- 1. When a principal, whose future court attendance at a criminal action or proceeding is or may be required, comes under the control of a court, such court shall, in accordance with this title, by a securing 7 order release the principal on the principal's own recognizance, release the principal under non-monetary conditions, or, where authorized, fix 9 bail or commit the principal to the custody of the sheriff. In all such 10 cases, except where another type of securing order is shown to be 11 required by law, the court shall release the principal pending trial on 12 the principal's own recognizance, unless it is demonstrated and the 13 court makes an individualized determination that the principal poses a 14 risk of flight to avoid prosecution or where the principal stands 15 charged with a crime or crimes against a member or members of the same 16 family or household as that term is defined in subdivision one of 17 section 530.11 of this title. If [such] a finding is made that the principal poses a risk of flight to avoid prosecution, the court must 18 select the least restrictive alternative and condition or conditions 19 20 that will reasonably assure the principal's return to court. The court shall explain its choice of release, release with conditions, bail or 22 remand on the record or in writing. In making its determination, the court must consider and take into account available information about 23 24 the principal, including: 25
 - (a) The principal's activities and history;
