Introduced by M. of A. PEOPLES-STOKES -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Employees

AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to establishing a model racial equity, social justice, and implicit bias training program

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The labor law is amended by adding a new section 201-i to
2 read as follows:

3 § 201-i. Racial equity, social justice, and implicit bias training. 1.

4 a. The department shall consult with the division of human rights to 5 produce a model training program on racial equity, social justice, and 6 implicit bias.

7 b. Such model racial equity, social justice, and implicit bias train-
8 ing program shall be interactive and include:

9 (i) a definition, explanation, and examples of racial equity, social 10 justice, and implicit bias consistent with guidance issued by the 11 department in consultation with the division of human rights;

12 (ii) examples of conduct that would be examples of violating equity,
13 social justice, race, or implicit bias principles;

14 (iii) information concerning best practices to avoid inequity, social 15 injustice, racial, or implicit bias by a civil service appointee in 16 actions connected to their professional work;

17 (iv) information regarding the impact of racial equity, social
18 justice, and implicit bias may have on individuals across the state;

19 (v) examples of racial inequities and their impact on communities of 20 color;

21 (vi) information concerning employees' rights of redress and all
22 available forums for adjudicating complaints; and

23 (vii) any other information the department and the division of human 24 rights deems relevant and appropriate for such a course.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 c. The department shall include information in such model training
2 program addressing conduct by supervisors that are contrary to any state
3 policy on racial equity, social justice, and implicit bias, and shall
4 include information as to how to report concerns regarding supervisor
5 conduct.

6 d. The model training program created pursuant to this section, and 7 any equivalent program shall be reviewed and reapproved by the depart-
8 ment and the division of human rights on a biennial basis.

9 2. The commissioner shall prepare templates of the model racial equi-
10 ty, social justice, and implicit bias training program created pursuant 11 to subdivision one of this section. The commissioner shall determine, in 12 his or her discretion, which languages to provide in addition to 13 English, based on the size of the New York state population that speaks
14 each language and any other factor that the commissioner shall deem 15 relevant. All such templates shall be made available to employers in the 16 state upon an employer's request.

17 3. The department may promulgate any regulations necessary for the 18 purposes of carrying out the provisions of this section.

19 4. As used in this section, the following terms shall have the follow-
20 ing meanings:

21 a. "Equity" means fair and just opportunities and outcomes for all
22 individuals.

23 b. "Social justice" means every individual deserves to benefit from 24 the same economic, political and social rights and opportunities, free
25 from health disparities, regardless of race; socioeconomic status; age;
26 sex, including on the basis of gender identity or orientation; religion;
27 disability; or other characteristics.

28 c. "Race" means a social construct that artificially divides people
29 into distinct groups based on characteristics such as physical appear-
30 ance, including color; ancestral heritage; cultural affiliation;
31 cultural history; ethnic classification; and the social, economic and 32 political needs of a society at a given period.

33 d. "Implicit bias" means the attitudes or stereotypes that affect our 34 understanding, actions, and decisions in an unconscious manner.

35 § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 36 it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the department of 37 labor, in consultation with the division of human rights, is authorized
38 to create the model racial equity, social justice, and implicit bias
39 training program pursuant to section 201-i of the labor law as added by 40 section one of this act.
