§ 240.64 Aggravated offering of a false accusation against a police officer or peace officer.

A person is guilty of aggravated offering of a false accusation against a police officer or peace officer when, knowing the information reported to be false or baseless, he or she reports, by word or action, to a law enforcement officer or agency, the wrongdoing by a police offi-9 cer or peace officer in the performance of his or her duties. Under 10 this section, police officer and peace officer are as defined under section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law.

12 Aggravated offering of a false accusation against a police officer or 13 peace officer is a class D felony.

- § 2. Paragraphs (t) and (u) of subdivision 4 of section 510.10 of the 15 criminal procedure law, paragraph (t) as amended and paragraph (u) as added by section 2 of subpart B of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2022, are amended and a new paragraph (v) is added to read as follows:
- (t) any felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifi-18 19 able person or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a 20 firearm as defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law, where such 21 charge arose from conduct occurring while the defendant was released on 22 his or her own recognizance, released under conditions, or had yet to be arraigned after the issuance of a desk appearance ticket for a separate 24 felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a firearm as defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law, provided, however, that the prosecutor must show reasonable cause to believe that the defendant committed the instant crime and any underlying crime. For the purposes 5 of this subparagraph, any of the underlying crimes need not be a qualifying offense as defined in this subdivision. For the purposes of this 7 paragraph, "harm to an identifiable person or property" shall include but not be limited to theft of or damage to property. However, based 9 upon a review of the facts alleged in the accusatory instrument, if the 10 court determines that such theft is negligible and does not appear to be 11 furtherance of other criminal activity, the principal shall be 12 released on his or her own recognizance or under appropriate non-mone-13 tary conditions; [ex]

(u) criminal possession of a weapon in the third degree as defined in subdivision three of section 265.02 of the penal law or criminal sale of a firearm to a minor as defined in section 265.16 of the penal law[-];

(v) aggravated offering of a false accusation against a police officer or peace officer as defined in section 240.64 of the penal law.

§ 3. Subparagraphs (xx) and (xxi) of paragraph (b) of subdivision 1 of section 530.20 of the criminal procedure law, subparagraph (xx) as amended and subparagraph (xxi) as added by section 4 of subpart C of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2022, are amended and a new subparagraph (xxii) is added to read as follows:

(xx) any felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a firearm as defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law where such charge arose from conduct occurring while the defendant was released on his or her own recognizance, released under conditions, or had yet to be arraigned after the issuance of a desk appearance ticket for a separate felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, provided, however, that the prosecutor must show reasonable cause to believe that the defendant committed the instant crime and any underlying crime. For the purposes of this subparagraph, any of underlying crimes need not be a qualifying offense as defined in this subdivision. For the purposes of this paragraph, "harm to an identifiable person or property" shall include but not be limited to theft of or damage to property. However, based upon a review of the facts alleged in the accusatory instrument, if the court determines that such theft is negligible and does not appear to be in furtherance of other criminal activity, the principal shall be released on his or her own recognizance or under appropriate non-monetary conditions; [ex]

(xxi) criminal possession of a weapon in the third degree as defined in subdivision three of section 265.02 of the penal law or criminal sale of a firearm to a minor as defined in section 265.16 of the penal law[⋅]; or (xxii) aggravated offering of a false accusation against a police officer or peace officer as defined in section 240.64 of the penal law.

- § 4. Paragraphs (t) and (u) of subdivision 4 of section 530.40 of the criminal procedure law, paragraph (t) as amended and paragraph (u) as added by section 4 of subpart B of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2022, are amended and a new paragraph (v) is added to read as follows:
- (t) any felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a firearm as defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law, where such 56 charge arose from conduct occurring while the defendant was released on
