2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

January 9, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. BURGOS -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law, the criminal procedure law, the family court act, and the executive law, in relation to prohibiting the handcuffing or forcible restraint of certain juveniles in certain circumstances; and limiting warrantless arrests of juveniles except where the arrest is necessary for public safety

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 35.30 of the penal law is amended by adding a new 2 subdivision 1-a to read as follows:

3 1-a. (a) (i) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this section or 4 any other contrary provision of law, a police officer or a peace offi-5 cer, in the course of effecting or attempting to effect an arrest, or of 6 preventing or attempting to prevent the escape from custody, of a child 7 as defined in subparagraph (i) of paragraph (b) of this subdivision whom 8 such officer reasonably believes to have committed an offense, may use
9 physical force only when such officer reasonably believes such child
10 poses an imminent risk of danger to such child, the officer, or another 11 person, nor shall any such officer handcuff or otherwise forcibly
12 restrain such child unless such officer reasonably believes such child
13 poses an imminent risk of danger to such child, the officer, or a third 14 person.

15 (ii) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this section or any 16 other contrary provision of law, a police officer or a peace officer, in 17 the course of effecting or attempting to effect an arrest, or of 18 preventing or attempting to prevent the escape from custody, of an 19 adolescent as defined in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of this 20 subdivision, may handcuff or otherwise forcibly restrain such adolescent 21 when, in such officer's discretion, such physical force or forcible 22 restraint is necessary to effect the arrest, prevent the escape or to

1 overcome resistance from such adolescent based on the nature and severi-
2 ty of the alleged offense and the circumstances of the interaction with 3 such adolescent.

4 (b) As used in this section the following terms shall have the follow-
5 ing meanings:

6 (i) "Child" shall mean a person less than thirteen years of age.

7 (ii) "Adolescent" shall mean a person over thirteen and less than 8 eighteen years of age.

9 (iii) "Forcibly restrain" or "forcible restraint" includes but is not 10 limited to the following actions:

11 (A) the use of any type of handcuffs, including disposable cinch
12 cuffs, thumb cuffs, zip ties, chains, shackles, irons, or any other 13 similar device or equipment used to restrict a person's movement; or

14 (B) the use or threatened use of physical force for the purposes of 15 restricting a person's movement, including the use or threatened use of 16 a firearm, or a taser, stun gun, or any similar "non-lethal" weapons; or

17 (C) the use or application of any combination of the methods described 18 in clauses (A) and (B) of this subparagraph.

19 § 2. Section 140.10 of the criminal procedure law is amended by adding 20 a new subdivision 3-b to read as follows:

21 3-b. (a) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this section or any 22 other contrary provision of this article, a police officer may arrest a 23 person under the age of eighteen years pursuant to subdivisions one, 24 two, and three of this section only when such warrantless arrest is 25 reasonably necessary to prevent an immediate threat to public safety.

26 (b) Except as provided in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, when a 27 police officer has reasonable cause to believe that such person under 28 the age eighteen years has committed:

29 (i) an offense in such officer's presence, or

30 (ii) a crime whether in such officer's presence or otherwise, such 31 police officer shall:

32 (A) issue or cause the issuance of an appearance ticket to such person 33 pursuant to article one hundred fifty of this part or article three of 34 the family court act; or

35 (B) apply for warrant of arrest pursuant to section 120.20 of this 36 part or article three of the family court act.

37 (c) Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to apply to an 38 arrest made pursuant to subdivision four of this section.

39 § 3. Subdivision 2 of section 305.2 of the family court act, as 40 amended by section 62 of part WWW of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, is 41 amended to read as follows:

42 2. An officer may take a child who may be subject to the provisions of 43 this article for committing an act that would be a crime if committed by 44 an adult into custody without a warrant in cases in which the officer 45 may arrest a person [~~for a crime under article one hundred forty~~] under 46 the age of eighteen years without a warrant pursuant to subdivision
47 three-b of section 140.10 of the criminal procedure law.

48 § 4. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 76 to read 49 as follows:

50 § 76. Youth services hotline for police officers. 1. The attorney 51 general shall establish and administer a hotline for police officers, as 52 defined in subdivision thirty-four of section 1.20 of the criminal 53 procedure law, to consult with youth social services professional or 54 legal personnel about field and school arrests, custody orders, 55 warrants, and other procedures governing police interactions with 56 persons under the age of eighteen years.

1 2. The attorney general shall recruit youth social services profes-
2 sionals and attorneys to participate in the program; provided such 3 social services professionals and attorneys shall not be deemed to be 4 representing any police officers that they advise through the program.

5 3. Such hotline shall be accessible via a toll-free phone number that 6 operates twenty-four hours per day and seven days per week.

7 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
