2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

February 14, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. DURSO -- read once and referred to the Committee on Election Law

AN ACT to amend the election law and the criminal procedure law, in relation to including attempting to register as an elector knowing that he or she is not qualified due to lack of U.S. citizenship

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 17-104 of the election law is amended to read as follows:

§ 17-104. False registration. Any person who:

1. Registers or attempts to register as an elector in more than one election district for the same election, or more than once in the same election district; or[~~,~~]

2. Registers or attempts to register as an elector, knowing that he or she will not be a qualified voter in the district at the election for which such registration is made; or

3. Registers or attempts to register as an elector, when he or she is not qualified due to lack of U.S. citizenship; or

4. Registers or attempts to register as an elector under any name but his or her own; or

[~~4.~~] 5. Knowingly gives a false residence within the election district when registering as an elector; or

[~~5.~~] 6. Knowingly permits, aids, assists, abets, procures, commands or advises another to commit any such act, is guilty of a class E felony.

§ 2. Paragraphs (t) and (u) of subdivision 4 of section 510.10 of the criminal procedure law, paragraph (t) as amended and paragraph (u) as added by section 2 of subpart B of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2022, are amended and a new paragraph (v) is added to read as follows:

(t) any felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a firearm as defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law, where such charge arose from conduct occurring while the defendant was released on his or her own recognizance, released under conditions, or had yet to be arraigned after the issuance of a desk appearance ticket for a separate felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a firearm as defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law, provided, however, that the prosecutor must show reasonable cause to believe that the defendant committed the instant crime and any underlying crime. For the purposes of this subparagraph, any of the underlying crimes need not be a qualifying offense as defined in this subdivision. For the purposes of this paragraph, "harm to an identifiable person or property" shall include but not be limited to theft of or damage to property. However, based upon a review of the facts alleged in the accusatory instrument, if the court determines that such theft is negligible and does not appear to be in furtherance of other criminal activity, the principal shall be released on his or her own recognizance or under appropriate non-monetary conditions; [~~or~~]

(u) criminal possession of a weapon in the third degree as defined in subdivision three of section 265.02 of the penal law or criminal sale of a firearm to a minor as defined in section 265.16 of the penal law[~~.~~]; or

(v) a violation of subdivision three of section 17-104 of the election law.

§ 3. Subparagraphs (xx) and (xxi) of paragraph (b) of subdivision 1 of section 530.20 of the criminal procedure law, subparagraph (xx) as amended and subparagraph (xxi) as added by section 4 of subpart C of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2022, are amended and a new subparagraph (xxii) is added to read as follows:

(xx) any felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a firearm as defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law where such charge arose from conduct occurring while the defendant was released on his or her own recognizance, released under conditions, or had yet to be arraigned after the issuance of a desk appearance ticket for a separate felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, provided, however, that the prosecutor must show reasonable cause to believe that the defendant committed the instant crime and any underlying crime. For the purposes of this subparagraph, any of the underlying crimes need not be a qualifying offense as defined in this subdivision. For the purposes of this paragraph, "harm to an identifiable person or property" shall include but not be limited to theft of or damage to property.
