2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

February 16, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. RAMOS, DICKENS -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law, the civil practice law and rules, the state finance law, the correction law, the education law and the mental hygiene law, in relation to defining offenses involving criminal street gangs, creating the criminal street gang prevention fund, and providing for gang prevention services in schools; and to repeal sections 120.06 and 120.07 of the penal law, relating to offenses of gang assault

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Legislative findings and purpose. The legislature hereby finds that New York laws are insufficient regarding the prosecution of criminal street gangs and the protection of public order and individual safety against gang-related violence, because of the lack of programs and activities specifically designed to prevent the growth of criminal street gangs, facilitate prosecution and punishment of members of criminal street gangs, and punish those who solicit others to participate in criminal street gangs and in acts of gang-related violence or who provide support or resources to those who commit or encourage the commission of such acts.

The legislature further finds that the threat of violence and the disruption of public order and safety presented by criminal street gangs have reached a crisis point that threatens the right of residents of this state to be secure and protected from fear, intimidation, and physical harm.

The legislature therefore finds and declares that it is in every sense in the public interest to establish a comprehensive approach to the protection of public order and individual safety against criminal street gangs and gang-related violence, by severely criminalizing such activities, by creating anti-crime programs that focus on patterns of crimi-

The department shall prepare and distribute to schools guidelines for incorporating in-service training in gang violence for teachers, counselors, athletic directors, school board members, and other educational personnel into the staff development plans, and shall, upon request, assist any school in developing comprehensive gang violence in-service training programs. Such information and guidelines, to the maximum extent possible, shall encourage schools to avoid duplication of effort by sharing resources; adapting or adopting model in-service training programs; developing joint and collaborative programs; and coordinating efforts with existing state and local gang violence staff development programs, county and city law enforcement agencies, and other public and private agencies providing gang violence prevention, or other related services at the local level.

The department shall additionally assist schools in qualifying for the receipt of federal and state funds to support their gang violence prevention in-service training programs. The department shall consult with the division of criminal justice services regarding gang violence.

The term "gang violence prevention in-service training" as used in this section means the presentation of programs, instruction, and curricula that will help educators develop competencies in interacting in a positive manner with children and youth to assist them in developing the positive values, self-esteem, knowledge, and skills to lead productive, gang-free, and drug-free lives, including the development of knowledge of the causes of gang violence and training regarding available information and resources concerning gang violence. It shall also include methods that will help educators interact with and educate parents of at-risk youth concerning the risks associated with, and warning signs of, gang affiliation.

§ 1211. Model gang violence curriculum; prevention activities. 1. The department, in collaboration with the division of criminal justice services, shall develop a model gang violence prevention curriculum for use in schools, and shall provide for an independent biennial evaluation of the curriculum and of pupil outcomes.

2. § 1212. Dress code concerning gang-related apparel. Any other provision of any other law to the contrary notwithstanding, the governing board of any school district may adopt or rescind a reasonable dress code policy that requires pupils to wear a schoolwide uniform or prohibits pupils from wearing "gang-related apparel" if the governing board of the school district approves a plan that may be initiated by an individual school's principal, staff, and parents and determines that the policy is necessary for the health and safety of the school environment. Individual schools may include the reasonable dress code policy. The governing board shall provide a method whereby parents may choose not to have their children comply with an adopted school uniform policy. No pupil shall be penalized academically or otherwise discriminated against nor denied attendance to school if the pupil's parents chose not to have the pupil comply with the school uniform policy. Grants shall be awarded pursuant to a request for proposals that informs applicants of the purposes and availability of funds to be awarded and solicits proposals to provide services consistent with this article. Agencies receiving funds pursuant to this section shall utilize the funds to provide services and activities designed to prevent or deter at-risk youth from participating in gangs, criminal activity, or violent behavior. Such funds may not be used for services or activities related to suppression, law enforcement, incarceration, or other purposes not related to the prevention and deterrence of gangs, crime, and violence. Nothing in this subdivision shall prevent funds from being used for violence prevention and gang crime deterrence services provided by nonprofit agencies to youths incarcerated in juvenile detention facilities. Services and activities provided with funds under this section shall be used for at-risk youth who are defined as persons from age five to twenty years of age and who are current or former gang members, or who have one or more family members living at home who are current or former members of a gang.

3. The department shall conduct an evaluation of the criminal street gang and violence prevention partnership program after two years of program operation and each year thereafter, to assess the effectiveness and results of the program. The evaluation shall be conducted by staff or an independent body that has experience in evaluating programs operated by community-based organizations or nonprofit agencies.
