AN ACT to amend the family court act, in relation to factoring domestic violence convictions into family court decisions regarding visitation, custody and parental rights

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraphs (vii) and (viii) of subdivision (a) of section 2 1046 of the family court act, paragraph (vii) as amended by chapter 432
3 of the laws of 1993, paragraph (viii) as added by chapter 1015 of the 4 laws of 1972, are amended and a new paragraph (ix) is added to read as 5 follows:
6 (vii) neither the privilege attaching to confidential communications 7 between husband and wife, as set forth in section forty-five hundred two 8 of the civil practice law and rules, nor the physician-patient and 9 related privileges, as set forth in section forty-five hundred four of 10 the civil practice law and rules, nor the psychologist-client privilege, 11 as set forth in section forty-five hundred seven of the civil practice 12 law and rules, nor the social worker-client privilege, as set forth in 13 section forty-five hundred eight of the civil practice law and rules, 14 nor the rape crisis counselor or domestic violence advocate-client priv-15 ilege, as set forth in section forty-five hundred ten of the civil prac-16 tice law and rules, shall be a ground for excluding evidence which 17 otherwise would be admissible[-]; and 18 (viii) proof of the "impairment of emotional health" or "impairment of 19 mental or emotional condition" as a result of the unwillingness or 20 inability of the respondent to exercise a minimum degree of care toward 21 a child may include competent opinion or expert testimony and may 22 include proof that such impairment lessened during a period when the 23 child was in the care, custody or supervision of a person or agency 24 other than the respondent[-]; and

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
