- (a) The term "horseflesh" shall mean the flesh of a dead horse, including the animal's viscera, skin, hide, hooves, and bones; and
- 10 (b) The term "slaughter" shall mean the intentional killing, or having 11 another kill a horse if such person knows that the purpose of such kill-12 ing is using any part of such horse for human or animal consumption.
 - 5. A violation of this section is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars per horse for an individual person, and up to two thousand five hundred dollars per horse for a corporation, association, or other entity, for the first violation. Any subsequent violation shall be punishable by a fine of up to two thousand dollars per horse for an individual person, and up to five thousand dollars per horse for a corporation, association, or other entity.
- 6. The provisions of this section shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other laws protecting animal welfare. This section shall not be construed to limit any state law or rules protecting the welfare of animals or to prevent a local governing body from adopting and enforcing its own animal welfare laws and regulations. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a person from otherwise lawful disposition of a deceased horse or any part of such horse.
- 7. If any provision of this section, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, is held invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect other provisions or applications of this section that can be given effect without the invalid or unconstitutional provision or application, and to such end the provisions of this section shall be severable.
- 33 § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after 34 it shall have become a law.
