whether or not to initiate a child protective proceeding, and criteria for the formulation of treatment plans and for the delivery of child protective services including specification of the services to be classified as child protective services, which shall also apply to any soci-5 ety for the prevention of cruelty to children which has entered into a currently valid contract with a local department of social services to 7 investigate child abuse or maltreatment reports. The department shall promulgate regulations establishing minimum standards and practices for 9 the delivery of child protective services in connection with monitoring 10 and supervising respondents and their families as ordered by a family 11 court pursuant to section ten hundred thirty-nine and paragraphs (i), 12 (iii), (iv) and (v) of subdivision (a) of section ten hundred fifty-two of the family court act. The department shall require that every case-13 14 worker, child protective services employee or any person acting pursuant 15 to a contract for services with a local social services department who has contact with a child as part of a treatment plan or supervision and 16 17 monitoring, document each such contact with a photograph taken of the child during such visit or contact using a tablet or comparable device. 18 Such photograph shall be part of the confidential case record for such 19 20 child and shall be subject to periodic review by the supervisor of the 21 case. Such photograph must be of sufficient quality to clearly identify 22 the child, and contain accurate data with regard to the time and date of 23 the photograph. The supervising authority may require, to the extent practicable, that the caseworker utilize technology allowing for the 24 25 geographic documentation of said visit. Such regulations required under 26 this subdivision shall also require local child protective services to 27 comply with notification requirements of the family court act in 28 connection with such monitoring and supervisory responsibilities.

- § 3. Section 372 of the social services law is amended by adding a new subdivision 4-c to read as follows:
- 31 4-c. The records maintained pursuant to this section by any casework-32 er, child protective services employee or authorized agency as defined 33 in section three hundred seventy-one of this title who has contact with 34 a foster child as part of a treatment plan or supervision and monitoring, shall document each such contact with a photograph taken of the 35 36 child during such visit or contact consistent with the requirements set 37 forth in subdivision three of section four hundred twenty-one of this 38 article.
 - § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
