Introduced by M. of A. TANNOUSIS -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the criminal procedure law, in relation to permitting at the discretion of the court certain family members of a victim who is deceased to read statements in court during the sentencing of a defendant

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subparagraph 2 of paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 2 380.50 of the criminal procedure law, as separately amended by chapters 3 173 and 198 of the laws of 1996, is amended to read as follows: (2) if such victim is unable or unwilling to express himself or 4 5 herself before the court or a person so mentally or physically disabled б as to make it impracticable to appear in court in person or the victim 7 is deceased, a member of the family of such victim, except that where 8 such victim is deceased and survived by both a spouse and a parent or 9 parents, the court in its sole discretion may allow a spouse or parent 10 or, upon consultation with counsel for the defendant and the people, allow both to make a statement on behalf of such victim, or the legal 11 12 guardian or representative of the legal guardian of the victim where 13 such guardian or representative has personal knowledge of and a 14 relationship with the victim, unless the court finds that it would be 15 inappropriate for such person or persons to make a statement on behalf 16 of the victim.

17 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
