CONCURRENT RESOLUTION OF THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY

proposing an amendment to section 25 of article 6 of the constitution, in relation to service by retired justices and requiring judges and justices to retire at age 76

Section 1. Resolved (if the Senate concur), That subdivision b of section 25 of article 6 of the constitution be amended to read as follows:

3 b. Each judge of the court of appeals, justice of the supreme court, judge of the court of claims, judge of the county court, judge of the surrogate's court, judge of the family court, judge of a court for the 7 city of New York established pursuant to section fifteen of this article and judge of the district court shall retire on the last day of December in the year in which he or she reaches the age of [seventy] seventy-six. 10 Each [such] former judge of the court of appeals and justice of the supreme court may thereafter perform the duties of a justice of the 12 supreme court, with power to hear and determine actions and proceedings, provided, however, that it shall be certificated in the manner provided 13 14 by law that the services of such judge or justice are necessary to expe-15 dite the business of the court and that he or she is mentally and physically able and competent to perform the full duties of such office. Any such certification shall be valid for a term of two years and may be 17 extended as provided by law for an additional term or terms of two years 18 in the manner provided by law. A retired judge or justice shall serve no 19 longer than until the last day of December in the year in which he or 20 she reaches the age of [seventy six] eighty. A retired judge or justice 22 shall be subject to assignment by the appellate division of the supreme court of the judicial department of his or her residence. Any retired 23 justice of the supreme court who had been designated to and served as a justice of any appellate division immediately preceding his or her 26 reaching the age of [seventy] seventy-six shall be eligible for desig-
