AN ACT to amend the social services law, in relation to allowing for certain disability benefits to continue in the event an individual who is receiving such benefits gets married

  The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1   Section 1. Clause (iv) of subparagraph 5 of paragraph (a) of subdivi-
2 sion 1 of section 366 of the social services law, as added by section 1
3 of part D of chapter 56 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as 4 follows:
5   (iv) Married couples. In the case of a married couple living together,
6 each spouse will be included in the household of the other spouse, 7 regardless of whether they expect to file a joint tax return under 8 section six thousand thirteen of the internal revenue code or whether 9 one spouse expects to be claimed as a tax dependent by the other spouse.
10 Provided, however, that for purposes of eligibility determination under 11 subparagraphs five and six of paragraph (c) of this subdivision, a 12 spouse shall not be included in the household of the other spouse if one 13 spouse is receiving benefits as an unmarried individual and as a result 14 of getting married would no longer be eligible to receive such benefits.
15   § 2. Subdivision 12 of section 367-a of the social services law, as 16 amended by section 42 of part B of chapter 57 of the laws of 2015, is 17 amended to read as follows:
18   12. (a) Prior to receiving medical assistance under subparagraphs five 19 and six of paragraph (c) of subdivision one of section three hundred 20 sixty-six of this title, a person whose net available income is at least 21 one hundred fifty percent of the applicable federal income official 22 poverty line, as defined and updated by the United States department of 23 health and human services, must pay a monthly premium, in accordance

1 with a procedure to be established by the commissioner. The amount of 2 such premium shall be twenty-five dollars for an individual who is 3 otherwise eligible for medical assistance under such subparagraphs, and 4 fifty dollars for a couple, both of whom are otherwise eligible for 5 medical assistance under such subparagraphs. No premium shall be 6 required from a person whose net available income is less than one
7 hundred fifty percent of the applicable federal income official poverty
8 line, as defined and updated by the United States department of health 9 and human services.
10   (b) Any unmarried individual who is receiving medical assistance under 11   subparagraphs five and six of paragraph (c) of subdivision one of 12   section three hundred sixty-six of this title at the time he or she 13   becomes a married individual shall continue to pay the monthly premium 14   individual rate, if he or she marries an individual who is otherwise not 15   eligible for medical assistance under such subparagraphs, so long as 16   such individual continues to satisfy the necessary criteria described in 17   such subparagraphs as if he or she were an unmarried individual.
18   § 3. The social services law is amended by adding a new section 366-j 19   to read as follows:
20   § 366-j. Retention of disability benefits for certain married individ-
21   uals. Notwithstanding any law, rule or regulation to the contrary, any 22   unmarried individual who is entitled to and currently receiving medical 23   assistance benefits under this title based on a disability, who would 24   become ineligible to continue receiving such medical assistance benefits 25   if he or she were married, shall remain eligible for such benefits if he 26   or she chooses to marry so long as such individual continues to satisfy 27   the criteria to be eligible for such benefits as if he or she were an 28   unmarried individual.
29   § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
