March 16, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. K. BROWN -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the cannabis law, the state finance law and the executive law, in relation to requiring the state comptroller and the attorney general to conduct an annual audit of the office of cannabis management

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The cannabis law is amended by adding a new section 140 to read as follows:

§ 140. Independent audit of the office of cannabis management. 1. At least once every year, the comptroller, the attorney general and the independent certified public accountants selected pursuant to this section shall conduct audits of the internal controls of the office of cannabis management. Such audits shall be performed in accordance with generally accepted government auditing standards and shall include a report on whether the office's internal controls are established and functioning in a manner that provides reasonable assurance that they meet the objectives of internal control as defined in section nine hundred fifty of the executive law. The report shall identify the internal controls both evaluated and not evaluated and shall identify internal control weaknesses that have not been corrected and actions that are recommended to correct these weaknesses. If any such internal control weaknesses are significant or material with respect to such departments, the independent auditors shall so state. The comptroller and the attorney general shall make available to the public the results of such audits, including any related management letters. The comptroller and attorney general and any officer or employee of such departments shall make available upon request to such independent certified public accountants all books and records relevant to such independent audits.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 2. The comptroller and the attorney general shall request proposals 2 from independent certified public accountants for audits of the internal 3 controls of their respective departments. The requests for proposals
4 shall include a reference to the requirements for audits conducted
5 pursuant to subdivision one of this section. The comptroller and attor-
6 ney general shall select such independent auditors in accordance with a 7 competitive procedure including an evaluation, based on quality and 8 price factors, of those proposals received in response to such requests 9 for proposals.

10 3. Whenever the comptroller or the comptroller's appointee is a member 11 of any board, commission, committee, council, or corporation, which 12 constitutes a state agency, the governing body of such board, commis-
13 sion, committee, council, or corporation shall select an independent 14 auditor for the purpose of conducting audits of internal controls in 15 accordance with this section.

16 § 2. Section 10 of the cannabis law is amended by adding a new subdi-
17 vision 17-a to read as follows:

18 17-a. Shall make available upon request to the state comptroller, the 19 attorney general and the independent certified public accountants
20 completing annual audits pursuant to section one hundred forty of this 21 chapter all books and records relevant to such independent audits.

22 § 3. Paragraph a of subdivision 2-b of section 8 of the state finance 23 law, as added by chapter 510 of the laws of 1999, is amended to read as 24 follows:

25 a. Either as part of one or more audits, or separately, conducting 26 periodic audits of internal controls and operations of state agencies 27 (other than those state agencies for which an audit is required pursuant 28 to sections nine hundred fifty-three and nine hundred fifty-four of the 29 executive law) and of covered authorities. Audits of the office of 30 cannabis management shall be conducted annually pursuant to section one 31 hundred forty of the cannabis law. All such audits shall be performed in 32 accordance with generally accepted government auditing standards. Noth-
33 ing in the New York state governmental accountability, audit and inter-34 nal control act shall be deemed to diminish or impair the comptroller's 35 power to audit and authority to supervise accounts under articles V and 36 X of the state constitution and this chapter. The audits shall identify 37 internal control weaknesses that have not been corrected and actions 38 that are recommended to correct these weaknesses. If any such internal 39 control weaknesses are significant or material with respect to the oper-40 ations of the agency that is the subject of the audit, the comptroller 41 shall so state. The comptroller shall make available to the public the 42 results of any such audits.

43 § 4. Section 63 of the executive law is amended by adding a new subdi-44 vision 17 to read as follows:

45 17. Conduct an annual audit of the office of cannabis management
46 pursuant to the provisions of section one hundred forty of the cannabis 47 law.

48 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
