AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to requiring the installation of smoke detectors in common places of certain dwellings

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 5-b of section 378 of the executive law, as amended by chapter 96 of the laws of 1988 and such subdivision as renumbered by chapter 94 of the laws of 2006, paragraphs a and d as separately amended by chapters 96 and 506 of the laws of 1988, and paragraph b as amended by chapter 82 of the laws of 1989, is amended to read as follows:

- 7 5-b. Standards for installation of single station smoke detecting 8 alarm devices requiring that:
- 9 a. every one or two-family dwelling or any dwelling accommodation 10 located in a building owned as a condominium or cooperative in the state 11 used as a residence shall have installed an operable single station 12 smoke detecting alarm device or devices,
- b. such device or devices shall be installed in an area so that it is 14 clearly audible in each bedroom or other room used for sleeping 15 purposes, with intervening doors closed, in accordance with rules to be 16 promulgated by the council,
- 17 c. every multiple-family dwelling and dwelling accommodation located 18 in a building owned as a condominium or cooperative in the state used as 19 a residence shall have installed an operable single station smoke 20 detecting alarm device or devices in an area so that it is clearly audible in each common space, with rules to be promulgated by the council.

For purposes of this subdivision, common space means a space accessible by all residents, including, but not limited to, a lobby, a hallway, and a stairwell,

d. such device or devices shall be in compliance with the uniform code, provided, however, that for purposes of this subdivision, battery operated devices shall be permitted,

[4.] e. upon conveyance of any real property containing a one or two-family dwelling or a condominium unit used as a residence and the transferor of the shares allocated to an apartment located in a building owned by a cooperative housing corporation where such apartment is used as a residence, the grantor shall deliver to the grantee at the time of conveyance an affidavit indicating that the grantor is in compliance with this subdivision. The grantee shall have ten days from the date of conveyance within which to notify the grantor if the alarm or alarms are not operable. Upon notification, the transferor shall bear any cost of compliance with the provisions of this subdivision,

 $[e extbf{-}]$ \underline{f} notwithstanding any other provision of law, a failure to comply with the provisions of this subdivision shall not be a breach of any warranty in a conveyance of real property, nor shall it be a defense to any claim made under a policy of insurance issued to insure the property against fire or other casualty loss.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
