Introduced by M. of A. HYNDMAN -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Employees

AN ACT to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to extending the benefits of the variable supplements fund to all New York city police officers, firefighters, housing police, transit police, correction officers and registered domestic partners

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 13-271 of the administrative code of the city of 2 New York is amended by adding a new subdivision g to read as follows:

3 g. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the provisions of this
4 subchapter shall apply to all police officers who, prior to the effec-
5 tive date of this subdivision, were ineligible for the benefits set
6 forth in this subchapter, including all disabled New York city police
7 officers, line of duty widows and widowers, registered domestic partners
8 and all other New York city police officers who receive benefits from 9 the New York city police pension fund. All such police officer reti-10 rees, widows and widowers and registered domestic partners shall be 11 eligible and are hereby granted all rights and benefits set forth in 12 this subchapter pursuant to the schedule set forth in subparagraph (i) 13 of paragraph seven of subdivision a of this section from the effective 14 date of this subdivision. However, nothing in this subdivision shall 15 serve to cause a reduction in the variable supplement payment to any 16 police officer or their beneficiary who was eligible for the benefit 17 prior to the effective date of this subdivision.

18 § 2. Section 13-281 of the administrative code of the city of New York
19 is amended by adding a new subdivision g to read as follows:

20 g. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the provisions of this
21 subchapter shall apply to all police officers who, prior to the effec-
22 tive date of this subdivision, were ineligible for the benefits set

officers, line of duty widows and widowers, registered domestic partners and all other retired New York city police officers who receive benefits from the New York city police pension fund. All such retired police officers, widows and widowers and registered domestic partners shall be eligible and are hereby granted all rights and benefits set forth in this subchapter pursuant to the schedule set forth in subparagraph (i) of paragraph two of subdivision a of this section from the effective date of this subdivision. However, nothing in this subdivision shall serve to cause a reduction in the variable supplement payment to any police officer or their beneficiary who was eligible for the benefit prior to the effective date of this subdivision.

§ 3. Section 13-385 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new subdivision i to read as follows:

i. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the provisions of this subchapter shall apply to all firefighters who, prior to the effective date of this subdivision, were ineligible for the benefits set forth in this subchapter, including all disabled New York city firefighters, line of duty widows and widowers, registered domestic partners and all other retired firefighters who receive benefits from the New York fire department pension fund. All such firefighters, widows and widowers, registered domestic partners and retirees shall be eligible and are hereby granted all rights and benefits set forth in this subchapter pursuant to the schedule set forth in subparagraph (i) of paragraph ten of subdivision a of this section from the effective date of this subdivision. However, nothing in this subdivision shall serve to cause a reduction in the variable supplement payment to any firefighter or their beneficiary who was eligible for the benefit prior to the effective date of this subdivision.

§ 4. Section 13-395 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new subdivision f to read as follows:

f. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the provisions of this subchapter shall apply to all firefighters who, prior to the effective date of this subdivision, were ineligible for the benefits set forth in this subchapter, including all disabled New York city firefighters, line of duty widows and widowers, registered domestic partners and all other firefighters who receive a benefit from the New York fire department pension fund. All such firefighters, widows and widowers, registered domestic partners and retirees shall be eligible and are hereby granted all rights and benefits set forth in this subchapter pursuant to the schedule set forth in subparagraph (i) of paragraph two of subdivision a of this section from the effective date of this subdivision. However, nothing in this subdivision shall serve to cause a reduction in the variable supplement payment to any firefighter or their beneficiary who was eligible for the benefit prior to the effective date of this subdivision.

§ 5. Subdivision 4 of section 13-191 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as added by chapter 844 of the laws of 1987, is amended by adding a new paragraph (i) to read as follows:

(i) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the provisions of this section shall apply to all transit police members who retired as transit police officers, who, prior to the effective date of this paragraph, were ineligible for the benefits set forth in this section, including all disabled transit police members, line of duty widows and widowers, registered domestic partners and all other transit police members who retired as transit police officers and who receive benefits from the New York city employees' retirement system. All such transit police officer

1 retirees, widows and widowers and registered domestic partners shall be
3 this section pursuant to the schedule set forth in subparagraph one of 4 paragraph (c) of this subdivision, from the effective date of this para-
5 graph. However, nothing in this paragraph shall serve to cause a
6 reduction in the variable supplement payment to any transit police offi-
7 cer or their beneficiary who was eligible for the benefit prior to the 8 effective date of this paragraph.

9 § 6. Subdivision 4 of section 13-191 of the administrative code of the 10 city of New York, as added by chapter 846 of the laws of 1987, is 11 amended by adding a new paragraph (i) to read as follows:

12 (i) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the provisions of this 13 section shall apply to all housing police members who retired as housing 14 police officers, who, prior to the effective date of this paragraph, 15 were ineligible for the benefits set forth in this section, including 16 all disabled housing police members, line of duty widows and widowers, 17 registered domestic partners and all other housing police members who 18 retired as housing police officers and who receive benefits from the New 19 York city employees' retirement system. All such housing police officer 20 retirees, widows and widowers and registered domestic partners shall be 21 eligible and are hereby granted all rights and benefits set forth in 22 this section pursuant to the schedule set forth in subparagraph one of 23 paragraph (c) of this subdivision, from the effective date of this para-
24 graph. However, nothing in this paragraph shall serve to cause a 25 reduction in the variable supplement payment to any housing police offi-
26 cer or their beneficiary who was eligible for the benefit prior to the 27 effective date of this paragraph.

28 § 7. Subdivision 4 of section 13-192 of the administrative code of the 29 city of New York, as added by chapter 844 of the laws of 1987, is 30 amended by adding a new paragraph (h) to read as follows:

31 (h) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the provisions of this 32 section shall apply to all transit police members who retired as transit
33 police superior officers, who, prior to the effective date of this para-
34 graph, were ineligible for the benefits set forth in this section, 35 including all disabled transit police members, line of duty widows and 36 widowers, registered domestic partners and all other transit police 37 members who retired as transit police superior officers and who receive 38 benefits from the New York city employees' retirement system. All such 39 transit police superior officer retirees, widows and widowers and regis-40 tered domestic partners shall be eligible and are hereby granted all 41 rights and benefits set forth in this section pursuant to the schedule 42 set forth in subparagraph one of paragraph (c) of this subdivision, from 43 the effective date of this paragraph. However, nothing in this paragraph 44 shall serve to cause a reduction in the variable supplement payment to 45 any transit superior police officer or their beneficiary who was eligi-
46 ble for the benefit prior to the effective date of this paragraph.

47 § 8. Subdivision 4 of section 13-192 of the administrative code of the 48 city of New York, as added by chapter 846 of the laws of 1987, is 49 amended by adding a new paragraph (h) to read as follows:

50 (h) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the provisions of this
51 section shall apply to all housing police members who retired as housing
52 police superior officers, who, prior to the effective date of this para-
53 graph, were ineligible for the benefits set forth in this section, 54 including all disabled housing police members, line of duty widows and 55 widowers, registered domestic partners and all other housing police 56 members who retired as housing police superior officers and who receive benefits from the New York city employees' retirement system. All such housing police superior officer retirees, widows and widowers and registered domestic partners shall be eligible and are hereby granted all rights and benefits set forth in this section pursuant to the schedule set forth in subparagraph one of paragraph (c) of this subdivision, from the effective date of this paragraph. However, nothing in this paragraph shall serve to cause a reduction in the variable supplement payment to any housing police superior officer or their beneficiary who was eligible for the benefit prior to the effective date of this paragraph.

§ 9. Subdivision 4 of section 13-194 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new paragraph (h) to read as follows:

(h) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the provisions of this section shall apply to all correction officer members who retired as correction officers, who, prior to the effective date of this paragraph, were ineligible for the benefits set forth in this section, including all disabled correction officer members, line of duty widows and widowers, registered domestic partners and all other correction officer members who retired as correction officers and who receive benefits from the New York city employees' retirement system. All such correction officer retirees, widows and widowers and registered domestic partners shall be eligible and are hereby granted all rights and benefits set forth in this section pursuant to the schedule set forth in subparagraph one of paragraph (c) of this subdivision, from the effective date of this paragraph. However, nothing in this paragraph shall serve to cause a reduction in the variable supplement payment to any correction officer or their beneficiary who was eligible for the benefit prior to the effective date of this paragraph.

§ 10. This act shall take effect immediately.
