2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

March 24, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. COOK -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Employees

AN ACT to amend the general municipal law and the civil service law, in relation to salary and civil service exam credits for police officers in certain cities; to amend the tax law and the real property tax law, in relation to establishing certain tax credits for resident police officers; and to amend the education law, in relation to the police officer loan forgiveness program

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1	Section 1. The general municipal law is amended by adding a new
2	section 207-r to read as follows:
3	§ 207-r. Salaries of police officers who are residents of certain
4	cities. A city with a population of one hundred thousand or more is 5	hereby authorized to adopt a local law to provide that the salary of a
б	police officer of such city who is a resident thereof shall be increased
7	by an amount of five percent or more of such officer's base salary.
8	§ 2. Section 58 of the civil service law is amended by adding a new
9	subdivision 7 to read as follows:
10	7. (a) A city with a population of one hundred thousand or more is
11	authorized to adopt a local law which would grant residents of such city
12	additional credits in competitive examinations for original appointment
13	as a police officer pursuant to this section.
14	(b) In the event of the enactment of a local law pursuant to paragraph
15	(a) of this subdivision, on an eligible list resulting from a compet-
16	itive examination for original appointment as a police officer, the 17	names of the eligible shall be entered in the order of their respective 18	final earned ratings on examination, with the name of the eligible with
19	the highest final earned rating at the head of such list, provided
20	however, that for the purposes of determining final earned ratings, a
21	person who is a resident of such city shall be entitled to receive five

1	points additional credit. Such additional credit shall be added to the
2	final earned rating after such person has qualified in the competitive
3	examination and shall be granted only at the time of establishment of
4	the resulting eligible list.
5	(c) Any candidate who believes that he or she is entitled to addi-
6	tional credit as provided in this section, may make an application for 7	such additional credit at any time between the date of application for
8	the examination and the date of the establishment of the eligible list.
9	Such candidate shall provide appropriate documentary proof of residency
10	as required by such city of residency.
11	(d) The additional credit provided by this section shall be in addi-
12	tion to any additional credit that may be granted pursuant to any gener-
13	al, special or local law.
14	(e) Any local law adopted pursuant to this section shall be applicable
15	only to competitive examinations for original appointment as a police
16	officer of such city which are held at least thirty days after the 17	adoption of such local law.
18	§ 3. Section 1310 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection
19	(h) to read as follows:
20	(h) Resident police officer credit. (1) Notwithstanding any other
21	provision of law to the contrary, any city imposing a tax under this
22	article is hereby authorized and empowered to adopt and amend local laws
23	for any taxable year beginning after two thousand twenty-four, as speci-
24	fied in such local laws, providing for a resident police officer credit
25	to be allowed as provided for in paragraphs two and three of this
26	subsection.
27	(2) The credit shall be allowed against the taxes imposed pursuant to
28	the authority of this article after the allowance of any other credits
29	allowed by this article. If the credit exceeds the tax as so reduced,
30	the taxpayer may receive, and the state comptroller, subject to a
31	certificate of the commissioner, shall pay as an overpayment, without
32	interest, the amount of such excess to the taxpayer.
33	(3) The credit shall be equal to five hundred dollars multiplied by a
34	fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days during the taxa-
35	ble year that the taxpayer was serving as a police officer while a city
36	resident and the denominator of which is the number of days in such
37	taxable year.
38	§ 4. The tax law is amended by adding a new section 1330-a to read as
39	follows:
40	§ 1330-a. Resident police officer credit. (a) Notwithstanding any
41	other provision of law to the contrary, any city imposing a tax under
42	this article is hereby authorized and empowered to adopt and amend local 43	laws for any taxable year beginning after two thousand twenty-three, as
44	specified in such local laws, providing for a resident police officer
45	credit to be allowed as provided for in subsections (b) and (c) of this
46	section.
47	(b) The credit shall be allowed against the taxes imposed pursuant to
48	the authority of this article after the allowance of any other credits
49	allowed by this article. If the credit exceeds the tax as so reduced,
50	the taxpayer may receive, and the state comptroller, subject to a
51	certificate of the commissioner, shall pay as an overpayment, without
52	interest, the amount of such excess to the taxpayer.
53	(c) The credit shall be equal to one hundred dollars multiplied by a
54	fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days during the taxa-
55	ble year that the taxpayer was serving as a police officer while a city

1	resident and the denominator of which is the number of days in such
2	taxable year.
3	§ 5. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection
4	(p-1) to read as follows:
5	(p-1) Resident police officer credit. (1) A resident police officer
б	credit shall be allowed against the taxes imposed pursuant to the 7	authority of this article after the allowance of any other credits
8	allowed by this article. If the credit exceeds the tax as so reduced,
9	the taxpayer may receive, and the state comptroller, subject to a
10	certificate of the commissioner, shall pay as an overpayment, without
11	interest, the amount of such excess to the taxpayer.
12	(2) The credit shall be equal to five hundred dollars multiplied by a
13	fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days during the taxa-
14	ble year that the taxpayer was serving as a police officer while a resi-
15	dent of a city which, if authorized to, is providing a real property tax
16	exemption pursuant to section four hundred sixty-six-1 of the real prop-
17	erty tax law and which, if authorized by this chapter to impose a tax
18	upon the personal income of residents, is providing a tax credit pursu-
19	ant to subsection (h) of section thirteen hundred ten of this chapter or 20	section thirteen hundred thirty-a of this chapter and the denominator of
21	which is the number of days in such taxable year.
22	§ 6. The real property tax law is amended by adding a new section
23	466-1 to read as follows:
24	§ 466-1. Resident police officer credit. 1. Real property, in a city
25	with a population of over one hundred thousand, owned by a resident
26	police officer or such officer and spouse shall be exempt from taxation
27	for city purposes to the extent of ten thousand dollars multiplied by 28	the latest state equalization rate for the assessing unit in which such
29	real property is located; provided that the governing body of such city,
30	after a public hearing, adopts a local law, ordinance or resolution
31	providing therefor.
32	2. Such exemption shall not be granted unless: (a) the applicant
33	resides in the city where he or she serves as a police officer;
34	(b) the property is the primary residence of the applicant;
35	(c) the property is used exclusively for residential purposes;
36	provided however, that in the event any portion of such property is not
37	used exclusively for the applicant's residence but is used for other
38	purposes, such portion shall be subject to taxation and the remaining
39	portion only shall be entitled to the exemption provided by this 40	section; and
41	(d) the applicant has been certified by such city as a police officer.
42	3. Application for such exemption shall be filed with the assessor on
43	or before the taxable status date on a form as prescribed by the state
44	board.
45	4. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any city with a
46	population of one million or more.
47	§ 7. The education law is amended by adding a new section 677-b to
48	read as follows:
49	§ 677-b. Police officer loan forgiveness program. 1. Certification.
50	Police officer loan forgiveness awards shall be awarded each year. Such
51	awards shall be allocated as provided in this section to eligible police
52	officers as certified to the commissioner by the president.
53	2. Eligibility. A police officer shall be eligible for an award under
53 54	this section provided that (a) such person resides in a city with a
55	population of one hundred thousand or more which has enacted a local law
55	population of one managed chouseful of more which has enacted a local law
