2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

April 3, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. GLICK -- read once and referred to the Committee on Economic Development

AN ACT to amend the economic development law and the New York state urban development corporation act, in relation to limiting the use of economic development funds to certain corporations

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The economic development law is amended by adding a new 2 section 107 to read as follows:

3 § 107. Restrictions on economic development funding to certain corpo-
4 rations. No economic development loans, grants or other funds may be 5 provided under the provisions of this chapter to any person, firm, part-6 nership or corporation where the chief executive officer of such busi-
7 ness entity receives a salary, including all remuneration, bonuses, 8 stock and benefits, which is more than twenty-five times the amount of 9 the salary of the lowest paid employee of such business entity. The 10 salary of any part time employee shall be determined on a prorated 11 basis, and calculated as if such employee was employed full time. The 12 commissioner shall request and examine the payroll records and any other 13 records of any business entity which receives or applies for any loan, 14 grant or economic development funding under this chapter which are 15 necessary to determine the salary amounts pursuant to this section.

16 § 2. Section 1 of chapter 174 of the laws of 1968, constituting the 17 New York state urban development corporation act, is amended by adding a 18 new section 5-a to read as follows:

19 § 5-a. Restrictions on economic development funding to certain corpo-
20 rations. No economic development loans, grants or other funds may be 21 provided under the provisions of this act to any person, firm, partner-
22 ship or corporation where the chief executive officer of such business 23 entity receives a salary, including all remuneration, bonuses, stock and 24 benefits, which is more than twenty-five times the amount of the salary
