2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

April 11, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. CHANDLER-WATERMAN -- read once and referred to the Committee on Correction

AN ACT to amend the correction law, in relation to incarcerated individuals wages

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 187 of the correction law is amended by adding a 2 new subdivision 5 to read as follows:

3 5. Incarcerated individuals shall be compensated for all work and 4 program assignments at a base rate of compensation of one dollar twenty 5 cents to ten dollars per day and shall be given biannual raises for 6 adequate performance in such assignments. An incarcerated individual 7 working in a manufacturing or industrial assignment shall receive 8 compensation of five to ten dollars per day for the duration of the time
9 such incarcerated individual works in such assignment and shall revert
10 to his or her previous rate of compensation once he or she is no longer
11 working in such assignment. Unless an incarcerated individual is leav-
12 ing such manufacturing or industrial assignment, his or her compensation 13 for performing his or her work or program assignment shall not be 14 decreased if he or she is transferred to a different facility or changes
15 assignments within a facility. The department shall review and adjust 16 the base rate of compensation of incarcerated individuals every five 17 years after the effective date of this subdivision to adjust for cost-18 of-living increases. A cost-of-living adjustment shall be made if the 19 sum of the annual average changes of the consumer price index for all
20 urban consumers (CPI-U), as published annually by the United States
21 department of labor bureau of labor statistics, is ten percent or great-22 er upon review. Incarcerated individuals who are not able to work or 23 participate in programs because of a medical, mental, cognitive, devel-24 opmental or physical impairment or condition or who are over the age of 25 sixty and not participating in a work or program assignment because of
