Introduced by M. of A. CARROLL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Election Law

AN ACT to amend the election law, in relation to requiring additional transferor and contributor identification information in campaign receipt and expenditure statements

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 14-102 of the election law, as 2 amended by chapter 8 of the laws of 1978 and as redesignated by chapter 3 9 of the laws of 1978, is amended to read as follows:

4 1. The treasurer of every political committee which, or any officer, 5 member or agent of any such committee who, in connection with any 6 election, receives or expends any money or other valuable thing or 7 incurs any liability to pay money or its equivalent shall file state-8 ments sworn, or subscribed and bearing a form notice that false state-9 ments made therein are punishable as a class A misdemeanor pursuant to 10 section 210.45 of the penal law, at the times prescribed by this article 11 setting forth all the receipts, contributions to and the expenditures by 12 and liabilities of the committee, and of its officers, members and 13 agents in its behalf. Such statements shall include the dollar amount of 14 any receipt, contribution or transfer, or the fair market value of any 15 receipt, contribution or transfer, which is other than of money, the 16 name ~~[and]~~, address and other identification of the transferor, contrib-17 utor or person from whom received, and if the transferor, contributor or 18 person is a political committee; the name of and the political unit 19 represented by the committee, the date of its receipt, the dollar amount 20 of every expenditure, the name and address of the person to whom it was 21 made or the name of and the political unit represented by the committee 22 to which it was made and the date thereof, and shall state clearly the 23 purpose of such expenditure. The requirement to include other identifi-24 cation shall apply only with respect to a transfer or contribution from any one transferor or contributor which either results in the aggregate transfers or contributions from that one transferor or contributor exceeding the sum of ninety-nine dollars or is a transfer or contribution which occurs after such ninety-nine dollar threshold is reached. The other identification required with respect to an individual transferor or contributor shall be his or her full name, full residential address, including any suite, floor, or apartment, occupation, employer and employer's full business address, including any suite, floor, or apartment number. The other identification required with respect to any partnership, committee, association, corporation, labor organization or other organization or group of persons shall be its full name and full business address, including any suite, floor, or apartment number. Any statement reporting a loan shall have attached to it a copy of the evidence of indebtedness, and shall include the full business name and address, including any suite, floor, or apartment number of any commercial or business entity providing the loan, or the full name of any person providing the loan, including his or her full residential address, including any suite, floor or apartment number, occupation, employer and employer's full business address, including any suite, floor, and apartment number. Expenditures in sums under fifty dollars need not be specifically accounted for by separate items in said statements, and receipts and contributions aggregating not more than ninety-nine dollars, from any one contributor need not be specifically accounted for by separate items in said statements, provided however, that such expenditures, receipts and contributions shall be subject to the other provisions of section 14-118 of this article.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the first of December next succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law.
