4 year, based upon a reasonable allotment by such director of such appro-
5 priations to such quarter, or for the entire fiscal year, such director 6 shall provide written notice of such determination to the executive 7 director of such board, the mayor of such city, the speaker of the city
8 council of such city, and the public advocate of such city, together

14 appropriations for personnel services and other than personnel services 15 for each quarter and the entire fiscal year, together with a detailed 16 explanation of the needs justifying any such projected excess expendi-17 tures. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to prevent the 18 director from requiring the furnishing of data and information, and 19 answers to pertinent inquiries, at any time in accordance with section 20 two hundred twenty-five of the New York city charter.

21 § 5. Section 3-300 of the election law is amended to read as follows:

49 elections in the city of New York. Except as expressly provided in this 50 subdivision, such board shall exercise no executive power and perform no 51 executive or administrative functions. Except as expressly provided in 52 this subdivision, such board shall make no individualized decisions
53 concerning the employment of any specific person or the registration, 54 pre-registration, enrollment or qualifications of any specific voter or 55 applicant. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to require or 56 authorize the day-to-day supervision of the executive director by the

1 board. The board may delegate powers and duties conferred upon the board
2 to the executive director, to be exercised consistent with paragraph (e)
3 of this subdivision. In the case of a vacancy, an executive director

25 pursuant to subparagraph four of this paragraph, party recommendations 26 to fill such vacancy shall be made within thirty days. If fewer than 27 three candidates are recommended in a timely manner by the commissioner 28 of election for the applicable political party then the members of the 29 city council who are members of the applicable political party may, by 30 majority vote of such members, file certificates of party recommendation 31 with the appointing authorities within fifteen days after the expiration 32 of the time for filing by the commissioners of election, so as to 33 increase the total number of candidates to three. If the members of the 34 city council from one political party do not recommend any candidates, 35 the appointing authorities will choose from the list of candidates 36 submitted.

37 (4) Candidates considered for executive director must satisfy all 38 qualifications required for local officers pursuant to the public offi-

56 the appointing authorities and commissioners of election, may agree to

1 issue a certificate of party recommendation and appointment to reappoint
2 such executive director to another term of office. In such event, the 3 process otherwise specified in subparagraphs two, three and four of this 4 paragraph shall not apply.

5 (7) An executive director may be removed from office for cause by 6 the appointing authorities. In addition, an executive director may be 7 removed without cause by the appointing authorities acting jointly with 8 the commissioners of election. Any vacancy so resulting shall be 9 filled in the manner prescribed by this paragraph for filling vacancies.
