5 camera or other functioning and unobstructed video recording device.
6 Each police officer involved in the execution of a search warrant must 7 wear a functioning and unobstructed body camera or other functioning and 8 unobstructed video recording device that shall be active prior to and 9 throughout the execution of the search and during any related action
10 following the execution of the search warrant, including, but not limit-11 ed to the securing of persons or evidence.

12 § 2. (a) Notwithstanding any law, rule or regulation to the contrary, 13 prior to a police officer or peace officer entering a property or prem-
14 ises, regardless if such police officer or peace officer has received 15 consent to enter such property or premises, or if there are exigent or 16 emergency circumstances or such police officer or peace officer is 17 otherwise authorized to enter such property or premises, such police 18 officer or peace officer shall wear and turn on a body camera or other 19 functioning and unobstructed video recording device. Each police offi-
20 cer or peace officer who enters such property or premises must wear a 21 functioning and unobstructed body camera or other functioning and unb-22 structed video recording device that shall be active prior to and 23 throughout the duration of such police officer's or peace officer's 24 occupation of such property or premises and during any related action
