Introduced by M. of A. CARROLL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Transportation

AN ACT to amend the vehicle and traffic law, in relation to requiring the suspension of the license to operate a motor vehicle of any person who was operating a motor vehicle at the time of an accident which resulted in a fatality

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph b of subdivision 2 of section 510 of the vehicle and traffic law is amended by adding a new subparagraph (xviii) to read as follows:

(xviii) for a period no less than sixty days but no later than the successful completion of the requirements set forth under this subparagraph where the holder was operating a motor vehicle at the time of an accident which resulted in a fatality. A person whose license was suspended under this subparagraph shall not have their license restored before the successful recompletion of all requirements under subdivision four of section five hundred two of this article for such license which shall not take place before the sixtieth day after the accident which resulted in the suspension.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the first of September next succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and completed on or before such effective date.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
