1 unions, libraries, public and private employers, employment and training 2 agencies and organizations, and private industry councils established in 3 service delivery areas defined in subdivision five of section nine
4 hundred seventy-one of the executive law. Such plan shall strongly 5 consider, for individuals who have obtained a high school diploma or a 6 general equivalency diploma (GED), training for sustainable wage jobs
7 and promote nontraditional employment opportunities for such partic-8 ipants; provided that any individual's preparation for employment shall 9 be consistent with federal and state work participation requirements.

10 § 3. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 334 of the social 11 services law, as amended by section 148 of part B of chapter 436 of the 12 laws of 1997, is amended to read as follows:

13 (a) education, employment and training opportunities available under 14 the local plan, including: (i) education and training for sustainable 15 wage jobs and nontraditional employment opportunities; and (ii) educa-
16 tional and training opportunities available at no cost to the partic-17 ipant as well as the responsibilities associated with the repayment of 18 student financial aid;

19 § 4. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 335 of the social 20 services law, as amended by section 148 of part B of chapter 436 of the 21 laws of 1997, is amended to read as follows:

22 (a) Based on the assessment required by subdivision one of this
23 section, the social services official, in consultation with the partic-
24 ipant, shall develop an employability plan in writing which shall set 25 forth the services that will be provided by the social services offi-26 cial, including but not limited to child care and other services and the 27 activities in which the participant will take part, including child care 28 and other services and shall set forth an employment goal for the 29 participant. To the extent possible, the employability plan shall 30 reflect the preferences of the participant in a manner that is consist-
31 ent with the results of the participant's assessment and the need of the 32 social services district to meet federal and state work activity partic-
33 ipation requirements, and, if such preferences cannot be accommodated,
34 the reasons shall be specified in the employability plan. The employa-
35 bility plan shall also take into account the participant's supportive
36 services needs, available program resources, local employment opportu-
37 nities, and shall strongly consider, for individuals who have obtained a
38 high school diploma or a general equivalency diploma (GED), the poten-
39 tial for available employment that pays a sustainable wage; provided
40 that any individual's preparation for employment shall be consistent 41 with federal and state work participation requirements; and where the 42 social services official is considering an educational activity assign-
43 ment for such participant, the participant's liability for student
44 loans, grants and scholarship awards. The employability plan shall be 45 explained to the participant. Any change to the participant's employa-
46 bility plan required by the social services official shall be discussed
47 with the participant and shall be documented in writing.

48 § 5. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 335-a of the social 49 services law, as amended by section 1 of part J of chapter 58 of the 50 laws of 2014, is amended to read as follows:

51 (a) Based on the assessment required by subdivision one of this
52 section, the social services official, in consultation with the partic-
53 ipant, shall develop an employability plan in writing which shall set
54 forth the services that will be provided by the social services official 55 and the activities in which the participant will take part, including 56 supportive services and shall set forth an employment goal for the

1 participant. To the extent possible, the employability plan shall
2 reflect the preferences of the participant in a manner that is consist-
3 ent with the results of the participant's assessment and the need of the
4 social services district to meet federal and state work activity partic-
5 ipation requirements, and, if such preferences cannot be accommodated,
6 the reasons shall be specified in the employability plan. The employa-
7 bility plan also shall take into account the participant's supportive
8 services needs, available program resources, local employment opportu-
9 nities, and shall strongly consider, for individuals who have obtained a
10 high school diploma or a general equivalency diploma (GED), the poten-
11 tial for available employment that pays a sustainable wage; provided
12 that any individual's preparation for employment shall be consistent
13 with federal and state work participation requirements; and where the
15 ment for such participant, the participant's liability for student
16 loans, grants and scholarship awards. The employability plan shall be
17 explained to the participant. Any change to the participant's employa-
18 bility plan required by the social services official shall be discussed
19 with the participant and shall be documented in writing.

20 § 6. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after 21 it shall have become a law, and shall apply to employability plans made 22 or updated on and after such effective date.
