AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to enacting the New York State Resident Experience Act of 2023

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "New York State Resident Experience Act of 2023".

§ 2. Legislative intent. The legislature finds that the New York state government serves the people of the state of New York and should seek to continually improve the provision of services based on resident feedback. While many state agencies, offices, and programs provide excellent service to New Yorkers, there are many areas ripe for improvement, particularly within agencies that provide extensive resident-facing services. Providing quality services to residents improves the confidence of New Yorkers in their government and helps agencies achieve greater impact and fulfill their missions. Improving services to residents requires agencies to leverage technology, collect and share standardized data, and develop customer-centered mindsets and service strategies. It is the legislature's belief that all agencies should strive to provide high-quality, courteous, effective, and efficient services to New Yorkers and seek to measure, collect, report, and utilize metrics relating to the experience of residents interacting with agencies to continually improve provision of services to the people of the state of New York.

§ 3. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 170-g to read as follows:

§ 170-g. Collection of voluntary resident experience feedback. 1. For purposes of this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
