IN ASSEMBLY

May 19, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. BARRETT, McDONALD -- (at request of the Department of State) -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to manufactured homes

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 607 of the executive law, as added by chapter 729
2 of the laws of 2005, is amended to read as follows:

3 § 607. Penalties for violation of this article. Any person or business 4 entity found guilty, after a hearing, of a violation of this article, 5 except for the provisions of section six hundred nine of this article,
6 may be required to pay a civil penalty of not more than one thousand
7 dollars for each such violation, but not more than five thousand dollars 8 for more than one violation relating to each home. Such [~~fine~~] civil 9 penalty shall be collected and deposited in the state's general fund. In 10 addition to the civil penalties set forth in this section, the secretary 11 shall also have the power to suspend or revoke [~~licenses~~] certifications 12 pursuant to section six hundred four of this [~~article~~] title.

13 § 2. Paragraphs (a) and (b) of subdivision 5 of section 609 of the 14 executive law, as added by chapter 729 of the laws of 2005, are amended 15 to read as follows:

16 (a) A manufacturer or retailer of manufactured housing who violates 17 any of the provisions set forth in this section relating to manufactured 18 housing or rules adopted by the department, including provisions of the 19 New York state uniform fire prevention and building code relating to 20 manufactured housing, is subject to a civil penalty not to exceed [~~one~~ 21 ~~thousand one hundred dollars~~] the maximum civil penalty established by 22 24 C.F.R. § 3282.10, as then in effect, for each violation. Each 23 violation constitutes a separate violation with respect to each manufac-24 tured housing unit, except that the maximum civil penalty may not exceed 25 [~~one million one hundred thousand dollars~~] the maximum civil penalty
