AN ACT to amend the environmental conservation law, in relation to imposing certain brownfield remediation site work requirements to be eligible for the tangible property tax credit associated with brownfield redevelopment

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The closing paragraph of subdivision 1-a of section 27-1407
2 of the environmental conservation law, as added by section 3 of part BB
3 of chapter 56 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:
4 Sites are not eligible for tangible property tax credits if: (a) the 5 contamination from ground water or soil vapor is solely emanating from 6 property other than the site subject to the present application; or (b)
7 the department has determined that the property has previously been
8 remediated pursuant to titles nine, thirteen and fourteen of this arti-
9 cle, title five of article fifty-six of this chapter and article twelve
10 of the navigation law such that it may be developed for its then
11 intended use; or (c) remedial activities as defined in paragraph (c), 12 (d), or (f) of subdivision five of section 27-1405 of this title are 13 performed by construction workers on a site who are paid less than the 14 prevailing rate of wages set forth by section two hundred twenty of the 15 labor law, unless such site is an affordable housing project as defined
16 in subdivision twenty-nine of section 27-1405 of this title.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.

§ 2. Paragraphs (c) and (d) of subdivision 8 of section 27-1407 of the environmental conservation law, as amended by section 3 of part A of chapter 577 of the laws of 2004, are amended and a new paragraph (e) is added to read as follows:

(c) there is an order providing for the investigation, removal, or remediation of contamination relating to the brownfield site against the person who is requesting participation; ~~[or]~~

(d) ~~[The]~~ the person requesting participation is subject to an outstanding claim as provided in subdivision four of this section~~[-]~~; or

(e) the person requesting participation is also seeking a determination that the site is eligible for the tangible property credit component of the brownfield redevelopment tax credit pursuant to paragraph three of subdivision (a) of section twenty-one of the tax law and does not require construction workers on a site performing remedial activities as defined in paragraph (c), (d), or (f) of subdivision five of section 27-1405 of this title to be paid the prevailing rate of wages set forth by section two hundred twenty of the labor law, unless such site is an affordable housing project as defined in subdivision twenty-nine of section 27-1405 of this title.

§ 3. Subdivision 5 of section 27-1409 of the environmental conservation law, as amended by section 4 of part A of chapter 577 of the laws of 2004, is amended to read as follows:

5. One authorizing the department to terminate a brownfield site cleanup agreement at any time during the implementation of such agreement if the applicant implementing such agreement fails to substantially comply with such agreement's terms and conditions, including the requirement that remedial activities as defined in paragraph (c), (d), or (f) of subdivision five of section 27-1405 of this title to be performed by construction workers on a site that is seeking or has received a determination that the site is eligible for the tangible property credit component of the brownfield redevelopment tax credit pursuant to paragraph three of subdivision (a) of section twenty-one of the tax law shall be paid the prevailing rate of wages set forth by section two hundred twenty of the labor law, unless the site is an affordable housing project as defined in subdivision twenty-nine of section 27-1405 of this title. The prevailing rate of wages for the performance of remedial activities as defined in paragraph (c), (d), or (f) of subdivision five of section 27-1405 of this title shall be subject to enforcement under sections two hundred twenty, two hundred twenty-a, two hundred twenty-b, two hundred twenty-three and two hundred twenty-four-b of the labor law and within the jurisdiction of the fiscal officer as defined therein; provided, however, nothing contained in this subdivision shall be deemed to construe any remedial site as otherwise being considered public work pursuant to article eight of the labor law;

§ 4. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law and shall apply to all requests for participation received pursuant to section 27-1407 of the environmental conservation law received on or after such date.
