Introduced by M. of A. RAJKUMAR -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to establishing a coordinator for asylum seeker services

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 4-c to read as follows:

§ 4-c. Coordinator of asylum seeker services. 1. The governor and the mayor of the city of New York shall jointly appoint a coordinator of asylum seeker services. The coordinator shall oversee the integration of services and benefits available to asylum seekers who are currently living or arriving in New York state with the following state agencies: the office of temporary and disability assistance; the departments of state, education and health; the office of children and family services; the division of homeland security and emergency services; as well as applicable local and federal agencies.

2. The coordinator shall be responsible for a systemic response to the various needs of asylum seekers including, but not limited to, intake, resettlement across the state, support services, health care, housing, education, language services, transportation, accessing federal programs and services, and advocating for federal legislation and policies related to immigration.

3. For the purposes of this section "asylum seeker" shall refer to an individual who changes their country of usual residence to seek temporary or permanent residence in another country, and who has applied for asylum under 8 U.S. Code § 1158 or is eligible to apply; or who is a refugee as defined by section 101(a)(42) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA).

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
