Such amounts shall be from funds appropriated herein and shall not be part of basic annual salary for overtime or retirement purposes.

§ 13. Date of entitlement to salary or hourly rate increase. Notwithstanding the provisions of this act or of any other law, the increase in salary or compensation of any officer or employee provided by this act shall be added to the salary or compensation of such officer or employee at the beginning of that payroll period the first day of which is nearest to the effective date of such increase as provided in this act, or at the beginning of the earlier of two payroll periods the first days of which are nearest but equally near to the effective date of such increase as provided in this act, provided, however, that for the purposes of determining the salary or hourly rate of such officer or employee upon reclassification, reallocation, appointment, promotion, transfer, demotion, reinstatement or other change of status, such salary or hourly rate increase shall be deemed to be effective on the date thereof as prescribed in this act, and the payment thereof pursuant to this section on a date prior thereto, instead of on such effective date, and shall not operate to confer any additional salary rights or benefits on such officer or employee. Payment of such salary or hourly rate increase may be deferred pursuant to section fourteen of this act.

§ 14. Deferred payment of salary or hourly rate increase. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other section of this act or of any other law, pending payment pursuant to this act of the basic annual salaries or compensation of incumbents of positions subject to this act, such incumbents shall receive, as partial compensation for services rendered, the rate of compensation otherwise payable in their respective positions. An incumbent holding a position subject to this act at any time during the period from the effective dates of the salary or hourly rate increases provided for in this act until the time when basic annual salaries or compensation are first paid pursuant to this act for such services in excess of the compensation actually received therefor, shall be entitled to a lump sum payment for the difference between the salary to which such incumbent is entitled for such services and the compensation actually received therefor. Such lump sum payments shall be made as soon as practicable. For the purpose of calculating retirement benefits, the amounts paid under this act shall count as compensation earned during the year or years for which it is calculated and not as compensation earned wholly in the year in which it is paid. Notwithstanding any law, rule or regulation to the contrary, no member of the profes-

§ 15. Use of appropriations. The comptroller is authorized to pay any amounts required during the fiscal year commencing April 1, 2023, by the provisions of this act for any state department or agency from any appropriation or other funds available to such state department or agency for personal service or for other related employee benefits during such fiscal year. To the extent that such appropriations are insufficient in any fund to accomplish the purposes herein set forth, the director of the budget is authorized to allocate to the various departments and agencies, from any appropriations available in any fund, the amounts necessary to pay such amounts. The aforementioned appropriations shall be available for payment of any liabilities or obligations incurred prior to April 1, 2023 in addition to current liabilities.

§ 16. Payment from special or administrative funds. If the compensation to which officers and employees of the state are otherwise entitled is payable from a special or administrative fund or funds of the state, other than the general fund or the capital projects fund of the state, the increase in compensation to which such officers or employees are entitled under this act shall be payable from such other fund or funds in the same manner as such other compensation. If the amounts appropriated or allocable from such other fund or funds are insufficient to accomplish the purposes of this act, the director of the budget is hereby authorized to allocate such additional sums from such other fund or funds as may be necessary therefor.

§ 17. Effect of participation in special annuity program. No employee participating in a special annuity program pursuant to the provisions of article 8-C of title 1 of the education law shall, by reason of an increase in compensation pursuant to this act, suffer any reduction of the salary adjustment to which such officer or employee would otherwise be entitled by reason of participation in such program, and such salary adjustment shall be based upon the salary of such officer or employee without regard to the reduction authorized by said article.

§ 18. Appropriations. Notwithstanding any provision of the state finance law or any other provision of law to the contrary, the sum of two hundred seventy-five million dollars ($275,000,000) is hereby appropriated in the general fund/state purposes account (10050) in miscellaneous-all state departments and agencies solely for apportionment/transfer by the director of the budget for use by any state department or agency, including the contract colleges at Alfred and Cornell, in any fund for the fiscal year beginning April 1, 2023, to supplement appropriations available for personal service, other than personal service, and fringe benefits, and to carry out the provisions of this act. No money shall be available for expenditure from this appropriation until a certificate of approval has been issued by the director of the budget and a copy of such certificate or any amendment thereto has been filed with the state comptroller, the chair of the senate finance committee and the chair of the assembly ways and means committee. The monies hereby appropriated are available for payment of any liabilities or obligations incurred prior to April 1, 2023 in addition to liabilities or obligations associated with the fiscal year commencing April 1, 2023. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, this appropriation shall remain in full force and effect for the payment of liabilities incurred on or before June 30, 2024.

§ 19. The several amounts as hereinafter set forth, or so much thereof as may be necessary, are hereby appropriated from the fund so designated for use by any state department or agency for the fiscal year beginning April 1, 2023 to supplement appropriations from each respective fund available for personal service, other than personal service and fringe benefits, and to carry out the provisions of this act. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the monies hereby appropriated are available for payment of any liabilities or obligations incurred prior to or during the period April 1, 2022 through June 30, 2024.
