Introduced by M. of A. RAJKUMAR -- read once and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to establishing Diwali as a school holiday in certain public schools

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 2586-a 2 to read as follows:

3 § 2586-a. Diwali as a holiday in the public schools of the city of New 4 York. The fifteenth day of the eighth month of the Indian calendar in 5 each year, known as Diwali, is hereby made and declared to be a holiday 6 in all the public schools in the city school district in the city of New 7 York and such public schools shall not be in session on such day.

8 § 2. Subdivision 2-a of section 3635 of the education law, as amended 9 by chapter 424 of the laws of 2005, is amended to read as follows:

10 2-a. The superintendent of each city school district, in a city having 11 a population in excess of one million, shall prepare a public school 12 calendar and shall notify officials of nonpublic schools to which trans-13 portation has been requested not later than the first day of June in 14 each year, of the days on which the public schools will be in session in 15 the following school year. Such school district which provides transpor-16 tation to nonpublic schools shall provide such transportation for the 17 same number of days as the public schools are open but shall not provide 18 transportation services for more than one hundred eighty days. Offi-19 cials of each nonpublic school to which transportation is provided by a 20 city school district of a city having a population in excess of one
21 million may notify such district, not later than the first day of July 22 of each school year, of a maximum of five days, exclusive of Saturdays, 23 Sundays or legal holidays upon which public schools are required to be 24 closed, on which the public schools are scheduled to be closed, except 25 that in any year in which the first or last day of Passover and Easter
