IN ASSEMBLY

November 15, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. CRUZ, ANDERSON, GONZALEZ-ROJAS, GALLAGHER, REYES, RAMOS, SEAWRIGHT, BURGOS, MAMDANI, MITAYNES, PAULIN, EPSTEIN, DE LOS SANTOS, DAVILA, THIELE, FORREST, SIMON, WALKER, JACKSON, HYNDMAN, KELLES -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the civil rights law, the public officers law, the tax law, the general obligations law, the education law, the alcoholic beverage control law, the general city law, the general business law, the labor law and the judiciary law, in relation to enacting the empire state licensing act; and to repeal certain provisions of the alcoholic beverage control law and the public health law relating thereto

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as 2 the "empire state licensing act".

3 § 2. The civil rights law is amended by adding a new article 4-D to 4 read as follows:

ARTICLE 4-D

RIGHTS OF IMMIGRANTS IN LICENSING

Section 49. Definitions.

49-a. Nondiscrimination and extension of licenses.

49-b. Application; confidentiality.

10 § 49. Definitions. When used in this article, unless the context 11 requires otherwise:

12 1. The term "license" shall include any professional, occupational, 13 commercial, or business license, permit, certificate, or any other 14 substantially similar permission, or related registration.

15 2. The term "issuing or registering entity" shall include any entity 16 that grants licenses, establishes the related qualifications, evaluates 17 the applicants, or performs any other substantially similar function.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD10091-01-3

1 § 49-a. Nondiscrimination and extension of licenses. 1. Notwithstand-2 ing any other provision of law, no applicant shall be denied a license 3 on account of the applicant's citizenship or immigration status, or lack 4 thereof.

5 2. Issuing and registering entities shall review license qualifica-6 tions and application processes to ensure maximum accessibility to immi-7 grant New Yorkers while maintaining necessary professional, occupa-8 tional, commercial or business quality. Where a provision of law 9 requires that licenses be granted only to applicants with sufficient 10 work experience, substantially equivalent experience, including but not 11 limited to voluntary internships or externships, research fellowships, 12 experience as a consultant, or experience obtained in another state, 13 district or territory of the United States, or in a foreign country, 14 shall be accepted. When English-language proficiency is not necessary to 15 maintain professional, occupational, commercial, or business quality, 16 the application process, including any related examination, shall be 17 made accessible in an applicant's primary language.

18 § 49-b. Application; confidentiality. 1. Notwithstanding any other 19 provision of law, no issuing or registering entity shall inquire into an 20 applicant's citizenship or immigration status, or lack thereof, nor 21 shall it ask an applicant for proof of such status, or lack thereof.

22 2. Issuing or registering entities shall not inquire regarding infor-23 mation or documents that may be probative of an applicant's place of 24 birth, including, but not limited to, country of passport issuance, 25 birth certificate, consular identification card, or passport, with the 26 exception of a social security number or social security card, or indi-27 vidual taxpayer identification number or individual taxpayer identifica-28 tion card, unless such information or document is necessary to establish 29 age, if relevant, or identity. A New York driver's license or learner's 30 permit, or similar document issued by another state, district, or terri-31 tory within the United States, shall be sufficient to establish age 32 and/or identity.

33 3. Whenever an applicant for a license is asked to provide a social 34 security number or social security card, an individual taxpayer iden-35 tification number or individual taxpayer identification card shall be 36 sufficient. No issuing or registering entity shall inquire into the 37 reasons why an applicant does not provide a social security number or 38 social security card, nor shall it ask the applicant for proof of the 39 lack of a social security number or social security card. No other 40 entity that receives information from such issuing or registering enti-41 ty, including but not limited to the department of taxation and finance, 42 shall inquire of the issuing or registering entity regarding such infor-43 mation or proof.

44 4. (a) The issuing or registering entity shall not retain originals or 45 copies of any documents that may be probative of an applicant's place of 46 birth, including, but not limited to, an applicant's birth certificate, 47 consular identification card, passport, social security card, or indi-48 vidual taxpayer identification number card, for longer than the time 49 needed to review the application. Nothing in this paragraph shall 50 prevent the issuing or registering entity from retaining documents where 51 such documents are required by law to be preserved for the purposes of 52 litigation.

53 (b) To the maximum extent allowed by applicable federal and state law, 54 information or documents collected by issuing or registering entities 55 that may be probative of an applicant's place of birth, including, but 56 not limited to, country of passport issuance, birth certificate, consular identification card, passport, social security number or social security card, or individual taxpayer identification number or individual taxpayer identification card, shall be treated as confidential and shall not be disclosed unless such disclosure is:

(i) Authorized in writing by the individual to whom such information pertains, or if such individual is a minor or is otherwise not legally competent, by such individual's parent or legal guardian; or

(ii) Necessary to comply with a lawful court order, judicial warrant signed by a judge appointed pursuant to article three of the United States Constitution, or properly-issued subpoena.

(c) To the extent disclosure of confidential information and/or documents to another state entity is required pursuant to state law, such information and/or documents shall be treated as confidential and not further disclosed by the receiving entity, consistent with the requirements of paragraph (b) of this subdivision.

(d) Whenever disclosure is permitted pursuant to court order, warrant, or subpoena, the issuing or registering entity shall provide the individual to whom the information and/or documents pertain with a copy of the court order, warrant, or subpoena within three business days of its receipt. Only such information or documents specifically sought pursuant to such court order, warrant, or subpoena shall be disclosed.

(e) All issuing or registering entities, and any other state entity that may subsequently receive confidential information and/or documents, shall ensure any information and/or documents that are stored electronically, including but not limited to in databases, shall be compliant with the provisions of paragraph (b) of this subdivision. Passive electronic access to confidential information and/or documents by external individuals or entities, when disclosure is not otherwise permitted pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subdivision, shall constitute an unlawful disclosure.

§ 3. Subparagraphs vii and viii of paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 of section 89 of the public officers law, as amended by section 2 of part GGG of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, are amended to read as follows:

vii. disclosure of electronic contact information, such as an e-mail address or a social network username, that has been collected from a taxpayer under section one hundred four of the real property tax law; [✗]

viii. disclosure of law enforcement arrest or booking photographs of an individual, unless public release of such photographs will serve a specific law enforcement purpose and disclosure is not precluded by any state or federal laws; or

ix. disclosure of information obtained through application for a professional, occupational, commercial, or business license, permit, certificate, or any substantially similar permission, or related registration, that might indicate the applicant's citizenship or immigration status.

§ 4. Subdivision 2 and subparagraph 3 of paragraph (a) of subdivision 3 of section 5 of the tax law, as amended by chapter 170 of the laws of 1994, are amended to read as follows:

2. Requiring information. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, every covered agency shall, as part of the procedure for granting, renewing, amending, supplementing or restating the license of any person or at the time the covered agency contracts to purchase or purchases goods or services or leases real or personal property from any person, require that each such person provide to the covered agency such person's federal social security account number [✗], federal employer

1 identification number, or [~~both such numbers when such person has both~~ 2 ~~such numbers, or, where such person does not have such number or~~ 3 ~~numbers, the reason or reasons why such person does not have such number~~ 4 ~~or numbers~~] the federal individual taxpayer identification number. Such 5 numbers [~~or reasons~~] shall be obtained by such covered agency as part of 6 the administration of the taxes administered by the commissioner for the 7 purpose of establishing the identification of persons affected by such 8 taxes.

9 (3) federal social security account number [~~or~~], federal employer 10 identification number, or [~~both such numbers where such person has both~~ 11 ~~such numbers, or the reason or reasons, furnished by such person, why~~ 12 ~~such person does not have such number or numbers~~] the federal individual 13 taxpayer identification number.

14 § 5. Subdivision 2 of section 3-503 of the general obligations law, as 15 amended by chapter 398 of the laws of 1997, is amended to read as 16 follows:

17 2. Every applicant for a license or renewal thereof shall provide his 18 or her social security number or individual taxpayer identification 19 number on the application. Additionally, every applicant for a license 20 or renewal thereof shall certify in the application in a written state-21 ment under oath, duly sworn and subscribed, that as of the date the 22 application is filed he or she is (or is not) under obligation to pay 23 child support and that if he or she is under such an obligation, that he 24 or she does (or does not) meet one of the following requirements:

25 a. he or she is not four months or more in arrears in the payment of 26 child support; or

27 b. he or she is making payments by income execution or by court agreed 28 payment or repayment plan or by plan agreed to by the parties; or

29 c. the child support obligation is the subject of a pending court 30 proceeding; or

31 d. he or she is receiving public assistance or supplemental security 32 income.

33 § 6. Paragraph (f) of subdivision 6 of section 6506 of the education 34 law, as amended by chapter 669 of the laws of 2022, is amended to read 35 as follows:

36 (f) Citizenship or immigration status: [~~be a United States citizen or~~ 34 669 of the laws of 2022, is amended to read as follows:

35 § 41. Licenses, how obtained; penalty for carrying on business without 36 license. The mayor or such local licensing authority may from time to 37 time grant, under his or her hand and the official seal of his or her 38 office, to such [~~citizens, or noncitizens lawfully admitted for perma-~~ 39 ~~nent residence in the United States,~~ people] as he or she shall deem 40 proper and who shall produce to him satisfactory evidence of their good 41 character, a license authorizing such person to carry on the business of 42 a collateral loan broker, which license shall designate the house in 43 which such person shall carry on said business, and no person, corpo-44 ration, partnership or firm shall carry on the business of a collateral 45 loan broker without being duly licensed, nor in any other house than the 46 one designated in said license, under a penalty of one hundred dollars 47 for each day he or they shall exercise or carry on said business without 48 such license or at any other house than the one so designated. Any 49 person receiving such license shall pay therefor the sum of five hundred 50 dollars for the use of the city yearly where such business is to be 51 conducted in a city with a population of more than one million persons, 52 and where the business is to be conducted elsewhere the fee for such 53 license shall not exceed two hundred fifty dollars yearly, and every 54 such license shall expire one year from the date thereof, and may be 55 renewed on application to the mayor or local licensing authority each 56 and every year on payment of the same sum and upon performance of the 1 other conditions herein contained. Every person so licensed shall, at 2 the time of receiving such license, file with the mayor or such local 3 licensing authority granting the same a bond to the local authorities, 4 to be executed by the person so licensed and by two responsible sure-5 ties, in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars, to be approved by such 6 mayor or local licensing authority, which bond shall be conditioned for 7 the faithful performance of the duties and obligations pertaining to the 8 business so licensed, and the mayor or such local licensing authority 9 shall have full power and authority to revoke such license for cause.

4 § 41. Section 460 of the judiciary law, as amended by chapter 669 of 5 the laws of 2022, is amended to read as follows:

6 § 460. Examination and admission of attorneys. An applicant for admis-7 sion to practice as an attorney or counsellor in this state, must be 8 examined and licensed to practice as prescribed in this chapter and in 9 the rules of the court of appeals. Race, creed, color, national origin, 10 noncitizen status ~~[or]~~, sex or federal immigration status shall consti-11 tute no cause for refusing any person examination or admission to prac-12 tice.

13 § 42. Severability. If any provision of this act, or any application 14 of any provision of this act, is held to be invalid, that shall not 15 affect the validity or effectiveness of any other provision of this act, 16 or of any other application of any provision of this act, which can be 17 given effect without that provision or application; and to that end, the 18 provisions and applications of this act are severable.

19 § 43. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day 20 after it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, 21 amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the 22 implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be 23 made and completed on or before such effective date.
