Introduced by M. of A. CUNNINGHAM -- read once and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means

AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to requiring a sales tax education course for new businesses and lowering the statute of limitations for sales tax liability to ten years

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The tax law is amended by adding a new section 1149 to read 2 as follows:

3 § 1149. Sales tax education course. The commissioner shall create an 4 online course to educate new businesses on the process of imposing and 5 collecting sales tax. Such online course shall include an examination.
6 Upon completion of such online course, new businesses shall receive a 7 certification in a form and manner to be determined by the commissioner.
8 Upon the first payment of sales tax to the state, each new business 9 shall be required to provide proof of such certification.

10 § 2. Section 174-b of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivi-
11 sion 1-a to read as follows:

12 1-a. Notwithstanding subdivision one of this section, beginning April 13 first, two thousand twenty-four:

14 (a) A sales tax liability shall not be enforceable and every such tax 15 liability shall be extinguished after ten years from the first date a 16 warrant could be filed by the commissioner, if the warrant for such tax
17 liability was filed by the commissioner after April first, two thousand 18 fourteen.

19 (b) A sales tax liability shall not be enforceable and every such tax 20 liability shall be extinguished after fifteen years from the first date 21 a warrant could be filed by the commissioner, if the warrant for such 22 tax liability was filed by the commissioner after April first, two thou-
23 sand nine and on or before April first, two thousand fourteen.
