IN ASSEMBLY

January 18, 2024

Introduced by M. of A. WALSH -- read once and referred to the Committee on Election Law

AN ACT to amend the town law, the village law, and the municipal home rule law, in relation to moving certain elections to odd-numbered years; and to repeal certain provisions of the county law and chapter 741 of the laws of 2023 amending the town law, the village law, the county law, and the municipal home rule law, in relation to moving certain elections to even-numbered years, in relation thereto

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 80 of the town law, as amended by chapter 741 of the laws of 2023, is amended to read as follows:

§ 80. Biennial town elections. [~~Notwithstanding any provision of any general, special or local law, charter, code, ordinance, resolution, rule or regulation to the contrary~~] Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a biennial town election for the election of town officers[~~, other than town justices or any town office with a three-year term prior to January first, two thousand twenty-five,~~] and for the consideration of such questions as may be proposed by the town board or the duly qualified electors, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, shall be held on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in November of every [~~even-numbered~~] odd-numbered year. All other town elections are special elections. A town election or special town election held pursuant to this chapter, shall be construed as a substitute, for a town meeting or a special town meeting heretofore provided to be held by law, and a reference in any law to a town meeting or special town meeting shall be construed as referring to a town election or special town election. [~~Any town completely coterminous with a village shall continue to elect its officers, including town justices, in odd-numbered years if both such village and town last held such elections in an odd-numbered year prior to January first, two thousand twenty-five.~~]

§ 2. Subdivision 4 of section 17-1703-a of the village law, as amended by chapter 741 of the laws of 2023, is amended to read as follows:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD13426-02-4

4. In any case in which the proposition provided for in subdivision one of this section shall have resulted in favor of the local government operating principally as a town, then, at the regular village election next ensuing, all offices to be filled thereat shall be filled for terms to end at the conclusion of the then current calendar year. The term of office of each other elected village office shall also end at the conclusion of said then current calendar year, notwithstanding that any such term of office originally extended beyond such date. The offices of supervisor, four town council members and two town justices shall be filled by election as hereinafter provided at the November general election next following the effective date of the creation of such town or annexation of such territory; all other town offices shall be appointive. The election of the supervisor, council members and justices shall be for terms of office as follows:

(a) If such election is held in an ~~even-numbered~~ odd-numbered year, then the term of office for supervisor shall be the term regularly provided by law; the terms of office for two council members shall be the terms regularly provided by law and the terms for the other two council members shall be two years each; the term for each justice shall be the term regularly provided by law. Upon the expiration of the two year term for council members as above provided, the terms for such offices shall be as regularly provided by law.

(b) If such election is held in an ~~odd-numbered~~ even-numbered year, then the term of office for supervisor shall be one year; the terms of office for council members shall be one year for two council members and three years for the other two council members and the terms of office for each justice shall be for the remainder of the then unexpired terms. Thereafter, each office shall be filled for the term regularly provided by law.

§ 3. Paragraphs g and h of subdivision 3 of section 34 of the municipal home rule law, paragraph g as amended and paragraph h as added by chapter 741 of the laws of 2023, are amended to read as follows:

g. In this chapter or in the civil service law, eminent domain procedure law, environmental conservation law, election law, executive law, judiciary law, labor law, local finance law, multiple dwelling law, multiple residence law, public authorities law, public housing law, public service law, railroad law, retirement and social security law, state finance law, volunteer firefighters' benefit law, volunteer ambulance workers' benefit law, or workers' compensation law~~;~~ and

~~h. Insofar as it relates to requirements for counties, other than counties in the city of New York, to hold elections in even-numbered years for any position of a county elected official, other than the office of sheriff, county clerk, district attorney, family court judge, county court judge, surrogate court judge, or any county offices with a three-year term prior to January first, two thousand twenty-five].~~

§ 4. Subdivision 8 of section 400 of the county law is REPEALED.

§ 5. Section 5 of chapter 741 of the laws of 2023 is REPEALED.

§ 6. This act shall take effect on the same date and in the same manner as chapter 741 of the laws of 2023, takes effect.
