AN ACT to amend the veterans' services law, the military law and the executive law, in relation to establishing the Alex R. Jimenez New York state military immigrant family legacy program

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The veterans' services law is amended by adding a new 2 section 29-b to read as follows:

3 § 29-b. Staff sergeant Alex R. Jimenez New York state military immi-
4 grant family legacy program. 1. For the purposes of this section, the 5 following terms shall have the following meanings:

6 (a) "Uniformed service member" shall mean a member of the army, navy,
7 air force, space corps, marine corps, coast guard, public health service
8 commissioned corps, or national oceanic and atmospheric administration
9 commissioned officer corps serving on active duty.

10 (b) "The program" shall mean the staff sergeant Alex R. Jimenez mili-
11 tary immigrant family legacy program.

12 (c) "Coordinator" shall mean an employee of the department appointed 13 by the commissioner, or an employee of the division of military and 14 naval affairs appointed by the adjutant general, to serve as a military 15 immigrant family legacy program coordinator pursuant to subdivision
16 three of this section.

17 (d) "Veteran" shall have the same meaning as such term is defined in 18 section one of this article and shall also include any veteran with a 19 qualifying condition, as defined in section one of this article, and has 20 received a discharge other than bad conduct or dishonorable from such 21 service, or is a discharged LGBT veteran, as defined in section one of 22 this article, and has received a discharge other than bad conduct or 23 dishonorable from such service.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 (e) "Intended recipients" shall mean uniformed service members, veter-
2 ans, reserve component members and their family members.

3 (f) "Reserve component members" shall mean those serving in the army
4 reserve, navy reserve, marine corps reserve, the army national guard,
5 the air national guard, or reserve corps of the public health service
6 during the time the unit was federally recognized as a reserve compo-7 nent.

8 2. There is hereby established within the department, in conjunction 9 with the division of military and naval affairs, the staff sergeant Alex 10 R. Jimenez New York state military immigrant family legacy program which 11 shall be jointly developed and implemented by the commissioner and the 12 adjutant general of the division of military and naval affairs, in 13 consultation with the office for new Americans established pursuant to 14 section ninety-four-b of the executive law, and in accordance with the 15 provisions of this section. The primary purpose of the program shall be 16 to assist intended recipients to secure legal immigration status in the 17 United States, including but not limited to, citizenship.

18 3. Two military immigrant family legacy program coordinators shall be 19 appointed, one appointed by the commissioner and one by the adjutant 20 general of the division of military and naval affairs, to administer the 21 program. Each coordinator shall be a veteran. The coordinators' duties 22 shall include, but not be limited to:

23 (a) assisting intended recipients, who may qualify for adjustment of 24 status, special immigration status through the federal Parole in Place
25 program authorized by section 1758 of the 2020 National Defense Authori-
26 zation Act, or any other sort of immigration relief, including relief 27 that can lead to citizenship, in securing legal representation or 28 consultation by qualified immigration attorneys or duly authorized board 29 of immigration appeals representatives as may be necessary to obtain 30 such relief.

31 (b) communicating with the commissioner and the adjutant general and 32 the office for new Americans regarding existing policies and regulations
33 pertaining to the needs of intended recipients and to make recommenda-34 tions regarding the improvement of benefits and services to such 35 intended recipients.

36 (c) serving as liaison between the department and the division of 37 military and naval affairs, the United States citizenship and immi-
38 gration services, immigration and customs enforcement, the United States
39 department of veterans affairs, the United States department of defense, 40 local veterans' service agencies, state agencies, community groups,
41 advocates, and other veterans and military organizations and interested 42 parties for the purpose of coordinating efforts to provide immigration 43 relief to intended recipients.

44 (d) consulting with qualified immigration attorneys or duly authorized 45 board of immigration appeals approved representatives to facilitate such 46 coordination with the United States citizenship and immigration services 47 or other appropriate agency.

48 (e) advocating for intended recipients.

49 (f) developing and maintaining a clearinghouse for information and 50 resources relating to the program as well as other federal, state, local 51 and non-profit programs that may offer assistance to intended recipients 52 in immigration matters.

53 (g) promoting events and activities that educate and assist intended 54 recipients, including but not limited to, veteran human rights confer-55 ences, veterans benefit and resources events.

1 (h) including the contributions that intended recipients have made on 2 behalf of the United States and this state on the department's official 3 website.

4 (i) developing information to be made available to congressionally
5 chartered veterans' organizations, and local veterans' services agencies
6 to provide a general overview of the program, including but not limited 7 to, its purpose and the eligibility requirements for adjustment of 8 status, citizenship, or any other form of available relief.

9 (j) preparing reports on topics, including but not limited to, the 10 demographics of intended recipients residing in the state, including the 11 number of such intended recipients by county, an estimate of how many 12 may be eligible for naturalization, and the unique needs of the intended 13 recipients within New York state to the commissioner, the adjutant 14 general of the division of military and naval affairs and the office for 15 new Americans.

16 4. The coordinators shall submit a report to the commissioner and to 17 the adjutant general of the division of military and naval affairs on 18 January first each year following the first full year after the effec-
19 tive date of this section. Such report shall include, but not be limited 20 to, a description and evaluation of the coordinators' activities for the 21 preceding calendar year as well as any recommendations for future
22 programmatic changes. The commissioner shall submit the report to the 23 governor and the legislature in accordance with the provisions of 24 section four of this article. The adjutant general of the division of 25 military and naval affairs shall submit the report to the governor and 26 the legislature in accordance with the provisions of section one hundred 27 sixty-four of the executive law.

28 § 2. Section 4 of the veterans' services law is amended by adding a 29 new subdivision 39 to read as follows:

30 39. To encourage the development of and provide for the establishment 31 of a state military immigrant family legacy program coordinator, as 32 provided in section twenty-nine-b of this article.

33 § 3. The military law is amended by adding a new section 256 to read 34 as follows:

35 § 256. State military immigrant family legacy program support. The 36 adjutant general shall encourage the development of and provide for the 37 establishment of a state military immigrant family legacy program coor-
38 ordinator, as provided in section twenty-nine-b of the veterans' services 39 law.

40 § 4. Paragraph (1) of subdivision 5 of section 94-b of the executive 41 law, as added by chapter 206 of the laws of 2014, is amended to read as 42 follows:

43 (1) (i) Coordinate with other state agencies and otherwise marshal the 44 resources of the state to serve the needs of immigrants, and (ii) advise 45 the state military immigrant family legacy program coordinators pursuant 46 to section twenty-nine-b of the veterans' services law;

47 § 5. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 48 have become a law.
