A "specified offense" shall also be an offense defined by any 46 of the following provisions of this chapter: section 242.05 (interfer-47 ence, harassment or intimidation of a service animal) and section 242.10 48 (harming a service animal in the second degree) when such service animal 49 is owned by members of the same family or household as defined in subdi-50 vision three of this section.

- 3. For purposes of this section, a member of the same family or household shall mean the following individuals:
 - (a) persons related by consanguinity or affinity;
 - (b) persons legally married to one another;

53 54

55 (c) persons formerly married to one another regardless of whether they 56 still reside in the same household;

A. 8901

(d) persons who have a child in common regardless of whether such persons are married or have lived together at any time; or

- (e) unrelated persons who are continually or at regular intervals living in the same household or who have in the past continually or at regular intervals lived in the same household.
- 6 § 2. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 60.38 to read as 7 follows:
 - § 60.38 Authorized disposition; domestic violence crimes.
 - 1. When a person is convicted of a domestic violence crime pursuant to section 256.00 of this chapter, and the specified offense is a violent felony offense, as defined in section 70.02 of this title, the domestic violence crime may be deemed a violent felony offense.
 - 2. When a person is convicted of a domestic violence crime pursuant to section 256.00 of this chapter and the specified offense is a misdemeanor or a class C, D or E felony, the domestic violence crime may be deemed to be one category higher than the specified offense the defendant committed, or one category higher than the offense level applicable to the defendant's conviction for an attempt or conspiracy to commit a specified offense, whichever is applicable.
 - 3. When a person is convicted of a domestic violence crime pursuant to section 256.00 of this chapter and the specified offense is a violation, the domestic violence crime may be deemed an unclassified misdemeanor.
 - 4. In addition to any of the dispositions authorized by this chapter, the court may require as part of the sentence imposed upon a person convicted of a domestic violence crime pursuant to this article, that the defendant complete a program, training session or counseling session directed at domestic violence crime prevention and education, where the court determines such program, training session or counseling session is appropriate, available and was developed or authorized by the court or local agencies in cooperation with organizations serving the affected community.
 - § 3. Paragraphs (t) and (u) of subdivision 4 of section 510.10 of the criminal procedure law, paragraph (t) as amended and paragraph (u) as added by section 2 of subpart B of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2022, are amended and a new paragraph (v) is added to read as follows:
 - (t) any felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a firearm as defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law, where such charge arose from conduct occurring while the defendant was released on his or her own recognizance, released under conditions, or had yet to be arraigned after the issuance of a desk appearance ticket for a separate felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a firearm as defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law, provided, however, that the prosecutor must show reasonable cause to believe that the defendant committed the instant crime and any underlying crime. For the purposes of this subparagraph, any of the underlying crimes need not be a qualifying offense as defined in this subdivision. For the purposes of this paragraph, "harm to an identifiable person or property" shall include but not be limited to theft of or damage to property. However, based upon a review of the facts alleged in the accusatory instrument, if the court determines that such theft is negligible and does not appear to be in furtherance of other criminal activity, the principal shall be released on his or her own recognizance or under appropriate non-monetary conditions; [ex]
