28 nineteen hundred forty-one through August fourteenth, nineteen hundred 29 forty-five, and who (iv) was discharged or released therefrom under 30 honorable conditions, or (v) has a qualifying condition, as defined in 31 section one of the veterans' services law, and has received a discharge 32 other than bad conduct or dishonorable from such service, or (vi) is a 33 discharged LGBT veteran, as defined in section one of the veterans' 34 services law, and has received a discharge other than bad conduct or 35 dishonorable from such service; or service in police duty on behalf of 36 the United States government in a foreign country, if such person is a 37 police officer, as defined by section 1.20 of the criminal procedure 38 law, and if such police officer obtained the prior consent of his or her 39 public employer to absent himself or herself from his or her position to 40 engage in the performance of such service; or as an enrollee in the 41 United States maritime service on active duty and, to such extent as may 42 be prescribed by or under the laws of the United States, any period 43 awaiting assignment to such service and any period of education or 44 training for such service in any school or institution under the juris-45 diction of the United States government, but shall not include temporary 46 and intermittent gratuitous service in any reserve or auxiliary force.
47 It shall include time spent in reporting for and returning from military 48 duty and shall be deemed to commence when the public employee leaves his 49 or her position and to end when he or she is reinstated to his or her 50 position, provided such reinstatement is within ninety days after the 51 termination of military duty, as hereinafter defined. Notwithstanding 52 the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, the term "military duty"
53 shall not include any of the foregoing services entered upon voluntarily
54 on or after January first, nineteen hundred forty-seven and before June 55 twenty-fifth, nineteen hundred fifty; and, on or after July first, nine-56 teen hundred seventy, the term "military duty" shall not include any

1 voluntary service in excess of four years performed after that date, or 2 the total of any voluntary services, additional or otherwise, in excess 3 of four years performed after that date, shall not exceed five years, if 4 the service in excess of four years is at the request and for the 5 convenience of the federal government, except if such voluntary service 6 is performed during a period of war, or national emergency declared by 7 the president.

8 § 7. This act shall take effect immediately on the first of April next 9 succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law.
