1 b. the methods the employer will use to prevent incidents of occupa-
2 tional assaults and homicides at such workplace or workplaces, including 3 but not limited to the following:

- 4 (1) making high-risk areas more visible to more people;
- 5 (2) installing good external lighting;
- 6 (3) using drop safes or other methods to minimize cash on hand;
- 7 (4) posting signs stating that limited cash is on hand;
- 8 (5) providing training in conflict resolution and nonviolent self-de-9 fense responses; and
- 10 (6) establishing and implementing reporting systems for incidents of 11 aggressive behavior, abusive conduct, and bullying.

12 5. Employee information and training. a. Every employer with at least 13 twenty permanent full time employees shall make the written workplace 14 violence prevention program available, upon request, to its employees, 15 their designated representatives and the department.

16 b. Every employer shall provide its employees with [~~the following~~] 17 information and training on preventing and reporting workplace bullying
18 and abusive conduct and the risks of occupational assaults and homicides 19 in their workplace or workplaces at the time of their initial assignment 20 and annually thereafter:

21 (1) employees shall be informed of the requirements of this section, 22 the risk factors in their workplace or workplaces, and the location and 23 availability of the written workplace violence prevention program 24 required by this section; and

25 (2) employee training shall include at least: (a) how how to identify 26 and report workplace bullying and abusive conduct and the measures 27 employees can take to protect themselves from such risks, including 28 specific procedures the employer has implemented to protect employees, 29 such as appropriate work practices, emergency procedures, use of securi-
30 ty alarms and other devices, and (b) the details of the written work-31 place violence prevention program developed by the employer.

32 § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 33 it shall have become a law.
