IN ASSEMBLY

January 11, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. JOYNER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to requiring certain public schools in any city with a population over one million to offer food options which meet dietary restrictions of certain students

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 915-a 2 to read as follows:

3 § 915-a. Food options. 1. In any city having over one million inhabit-
4 ants, any public school that has twenty-five percent or more of students 5 practicing a religious faith with specific dietary restrictions shall 6 offer food options which meet such dietary restrictions at each meal 7 offered.

8 2. Any public school in a city with a population of one million or 9 more with fewer than twenty-five percent of students practicing a reli-
10 gious faith with specific dietary restrictions shall offer food options 11 at each meal that meet such dietary restrictions upon any student's 12 request and in sufficient amounts to meet the needs of any such 13 students, but shall not otherwise be required to offer such food 14 options.

15 § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after 16 it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amend-17 ment and/or repeal of any rules or regulations necessary for the imple-18 mentation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made on 19 or before such date.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
