STATE OF NEW YORK

8985

IN ASSEMBLY

January 31, 2024

Introduced by M. of A. BRONSON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Labor

AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to civil actions brought by employees

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 10 of section 27-a of the labor law is amended 2 by adding a new paragraph e to read as follows:

e. An employee may bring a civil action in a court of competent juris-4 diction against any employer alleged to have violated the provisions of 5 this section. Such action must be commenced within three years after 6 such violation. The court shall have jurisdiction to order all appropri-7 ate relief, including enjoining the conduct of any employer; ordering 8 payment of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees to the employee by the entity in violation; and ordering rehiring or reinstatement of the 9 employee to his or her former position with restoration of seniority or 10 11 an award of front pay in lieu of reinstatement, and an award of lost 12 compensation and damages, costs and reasonable attorneys' fees. The 13 statute of limitations shall be tolled from the date an employee files a 14 complaint with the commissioner or the commissioner commences an inves-15 tigation, whichever is earlier, until an order to comply issued by the 16 commissioner becomes final, or where the commissioner does not issue an 17 order, until the date on which the commissioner notifies the complainant 18 that the investigation has concluded. Investigation by the commissioner 19 shall not be a prerequisite to nor a bar against a person bringing a civil action under this section. 20

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

21

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD04469-03-3