AN ACT to amend the uniform justice court act, the judiciary law, and the criminal procedure law, in relation to providing for the presence of either a uniformed court officer or law enforcement officer during court proceedings

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 109 of the uniform justice court act is amended by 2 adding a new closing paragraph to read as follows:

3 Provided, however, that the chief administrator of the courts shall, 4 upon request by the municipality, ensure the assignment and presence of 5 a uniformed court officer during court proceedings. If a uniformed court 6 officer is not available, the chief administrator of the courts shall be 7 responsible for coordinating and ensuring the presence of a law enforce-
8 ment official during such court proceedings. Political subdivisions 9 which provide security services for the courts shall be entitled to 10 reimbursement from the state. No costs associated with facilitating the 11 presence of a law enforcement officer in lieu of a uniformed court offi-
12 cer shall be incurred by the municipality.

13 § 2. Section 216 of the judiciary law is amended by adding a new 14 subdivision 7 to read as follows:

15 7. The chief administrator of the courts shall, upon request by the 16 municipality, ensure the assignment and presence of a uniformed court
17 officer during court proceedings. If a uniformed court officer is not 18 available, the chief administrator of the courts shall be responsible 19 for coordinating and ensuring the presence of a law enforcement official 20 during such court proceedings.

21 § 3. Subdivision 2 of section 849-h of the judiciary law, as added by 22 chapter 280 of the laws of 1999, is amended to read as follows:

23 2. Funds available pursuant to this article may be used for any 24 purpose having as its end enhancement of the justice courts' ability to 25 provide suitable and sufficient services to their respective communi-
26 ties. These purposes may include, but shall not be limited to, costs

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 associated with hiring nonjudicial court security or reimbursement of 2 costs for utilizing local law enforcement services; automation of court 3 operations; improvement or expansion of court facilities; provision of 4 appropriate means for the recording of court proceedings; provision of 5 lawbooks, treatises and related materials; and provision of appropriate
6 training for justices and for nonjudicial court staff. Except as may 7 otherwise be provided by rule of the chief administrator, funds avail-
8 able pursuant to this article shall not be used to compensate justices 9 [~~and nonjudicial court staff~~], nor shall they be used as a means of 10 reducing funding provided by a town or village to its justice court.

11 § 4. Subdivision 4 of section 849-i of the judiciary law, as amended 12 by chapter 127 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read as follows:

13 4. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the chief administrator 14 shall not approve any application for funding in excess of [~~thirty~~ two 15 hundred and fifty thousand dollars unless such application is a joint 16 application and the aggregate funding sought thereunder does not exceed 17 an amount equaling the product of the number of joint applicants making 18 such application and [~~thirty~~ two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

19 § 5. Subdivision 1 of section 219-b of the judiciary law, as added by 20 chapter 548 of the laws of 2006, is amended to read as follows:

21 1. There shall be established a New York state court officer academy
22 (hereinafter referred to in this section as the "academy"). This academy 23 shall serve as a center for the provision of education and training to 24 New York state court officers and other non-judicial employees of the 25 New York state courts. For the purpose of this section, New York state 26 court officers shall include court officers assigned to or employed by a 27 unified justice court.

28 § 6. Paragraph a of subdivision 21 of section 2.10 of the criminal 29 procedure law, as added by chapter 843 of the laws of 1980, is amended
