

STATE OF NEW YORK

9701

IN ASSEMBLY

April 3, 2024

Introduced by M. of A. SEAWRIGHT -- read once and referred to the Committee on Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to courses of study in consumer awareness and financial education

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 814-a
2 to read as follows:

3 § 814-a. Courses of study in consumer awareness and financial educa-
4 tion. 1. Any school district in the state shall provide, to pupils in 5 grades nine through twelve, one full unit of instruction designed to 6 promote consumer awareness and financial education.

7 2. The commissioner shall provide technical assistance to receive a
8 course or full unit of instruction in consumer awareness and financial 9 education.

10 3. The requirements of this section may be fulfilled through the 11 finance unit of the required high school economics or home economics
12 course or the continuation of financial management courses currently 13 being taught in public secondary schools.

14 4. The board of education or trustees of the school district is 15 charged with developing and maintaining a consumer awareness and finan-
16 cial education program for secondary school pupils that shall include,
17 but not be limited to, instruction in the following:

18 a. setting financial goals and developing a budget;

19 b. understanding basic banking services such as checking accounts,
20 savings accounts and certificates of deposit;

21 c. understanding the consumer impact and risks associated with check
22 cashing and other tools available to consumers for immediate access to 23 funds;

24 d. understanding various investment tools and risks including but not 25 limited to college savings plans, mutual funds, insurance policies, the 26 stock market and other investment types;

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD00404-01-3

1 e. understanding insurance products and risks including but not limit-
2 ed to life insurance, auto insurance, health insurance, homeowner and
3 rental insurance;

4 f. understanding the use and risk associated with credit, borrowing,
5 credit scoring, and credit card debt;

6 g. how to manage debt, including home, automotive and credit card
7 debt;

8 h. how to understand and calculate interest rates;

9 i. how to understand retirement planning options and risks including
10 but not limited to deferred compensation, social security, IRA, ROTH IRA 11 and other retirement planning options; and

12 j. a review of state agencies and laws to assist consumers in banking
13 and consumer transactions.

14 5. The commissioner shall provide assistance for the development of 15 curricula for such courses of study which shall be age appropriate and 16 developed according to the needs and abilities of pupils in order to 17 provide consumer awareness and financial education, skills, information
18 and support.

19 § 2. This act shall take effect one year after it shall have become a 20 law.