39 Section 1. The public authorities law is amended by adding a new 40 section 1265-c to read as follows:

§ 1265-c. Independent forensic audit. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the authority shall, within sixty days of the effective date of this section and at its own expense, contract with a certified public accounting firm for the provision of an independent, comprehensive, forensic audit of the authority. Such audit shall be performed in accordance with generally accepted government auditing standards. Such audit shall be independent of and in addition to the independent audit of the authority conducted pursuant to section twenty-eight hundred two of this chapter.

2. The certified independent public accounting firm providing the authority's independent, comprehensive, forensic audit shall be prohibited from providing audit services if the lead or coordinating audit partner having primary responsibility for the audit, or the audit partner responsible for reviewing the audit, has performed audit services

1 for the authority within any of the ten previous fiscal years of the 2 authority.

- 3. The certified independent accounting firm performing the audit pursuant to this section shall be prohibited from performing any non-audit services for the authority contemporaneously with such audit.
- 4. It shall be prohibited for the certified independent public accounting firm to perform for the authority any audit service if the chief executive officer, comptroller, chief financial officer, chief accounting officer or any other person serving in an equivalent position in the authority was an employee, consultant or independent contractor of such certified independent public accounting firm and participated in any capacity in the audit of the authority at any time in the past.
- 5. The certified independent public accounting firm contracted to perform the independent, comprehensive, forensic audit of the authority pursuant to this section shall, on or before January first, two thousand twenty-six, report its findings, conclusions and recommendations to the governor, the state comptroller, the temporary president of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, the chair and ranking minority member of the assembly ways and means committee, the chairs and ranking minority members of the senate and the assembly corporations, authorities and commissions committees, and the chairs and ranking minority members of the senate and the assembly transportation committees.
- § 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall expire and be deemed repealed upon the delivery of the report required pursuant to subdivision 5 of section 1265-c of the public authorities law as added by section one of this act; provided that the state comptroller shall notify the legislative bill drafting commission upon receipt of such report in order that the commission may maintain an accurate and timely effective data base of the official text of the laws of the state of New York in furtherance of effectuating the provisions of section 44 of the legislative law and section 70-b of the public officers law.
- § 2. Severability clause. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part of this act shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered. It is hereby declared to be the intent of the legislature that this act would have been enacted even if such invalid provisions had not been included herein.
- § 3. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that the applicable effective date of Parts A through C of this act shall be as specifically set forth in the last section of such Parts.
