1 action, the court shall orally give every defendant on the record the 2 following notification: "If you are not a citizen of the United States,
3 you may become deportable, ineligible for naturalization or inadmissible
4 to the United States based on a conviction by plea or verdict."

5 (i) The court shall notify every defendant in a language that the 6 defendant understands without inquiring about the defendant's citizen-
7 ship or immigration status on the record.

8 (ii) Only the court shall notify defendants about the possibility of 9 deportability, ineligibility for naturalization, or inadmissibility to 10 the United States pursuant to this paragraph. The court and the people 11 shall not make any other statements about immigration consequences,
12 including but not limited to statements regarding likely immigration 13 consequences, condition defendant's guilty plea regardless of immi-
14 gration consequences, or require waiver of any issue or claim related to 15 immigration consequences. The provisions of this subparagraph shall not 16 preclude the people from citing to this subdivision to ensure compli-17 ance.

18 (iii) Upon request of the defendant, the court shall allow the defend-19 ant additional time to secure counsel or consider the appropriateness of 20 the plea following the notification described in this subdivision, with 21 such plea offer remaining open.

22 (iv) Advice regarding immigration consequences given by defense coun-23 sel does not absolve the court of its independent obligation to give the 24 notice mandated in this subdivision.

25 (v) The notification does not absolve defense counsel of their inde-26 pendent obligation to explain the immigration consequences to the 27 defendant.

28 (vi) Nothing in this subdivision shall prohibit a court or the people 29 from considering the immigration status of a defendant in accepting 30 entry of a plea, imposing a lower sentence according to law, consenting 31 to a lesser included offense, or filing an additional accusatory instru-32 ment.

33 (b) At the time of a defendant's arraignment, the court shall also 34 comply with paragraph (a) of this subdivision, though failure to do so 35 does not require vacatur pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subdivision.

36 (c) When a conviction or plea has potential or actual immigration
37 consequences for a defendant, (1) the court's failure to strictly comply 38 with paragraph (a) of this subdivision, on or after the effective date 39 of this subdivision, shall render the plea unknowing, involuntary, and 40 unintelligent, requiring vacatur. (2) The court's failure to have 41 substantially complied with paragraph (a) of this subdivision in any 42 felony proceeding that was pending or on direct appeal on or after 43 November nineteenth, two thousand thirteen to the effective date of this 44 subdivision shall render the plea unknowing, involuntary, and unintelli-45 gent, requiring vacatur. An application to vacate the judgment or with-46 draw the defendant's plea of guilty on this basis can be raised either 47 on direct appeal or at any time pursuant to a motion under paragraph (h) 48 of subdivision one of section 440.10 of this chapter.

49 (i) The term "potential or actual immigration consequences" includes 50 but is not limited to the use of the relevant penal law section in any 51 removal proceeding or adjudication under federal immigration law.

52 (ii) All records, papers, and affirmations submitted by the defendant
53 to establish that such defendant is not a United States citizen and that 54 the conviction has potential or actual immigration consequences are 55 confidential and may not be made available to any person or public or

1 private agency, except where specifically required by statute or when so 2 requested by the defendant.

3 (iii) Unless the required notification appears on the record or if no 4 record exists, the defendant shall be presumed to have not received the 5 notification from the court.

6 (iv) This remedy for the court's failure to provide the notification 7 is required notwithstanding any preservation requirement or failure to 8 object by the defendant to the court's failure to give the notification.

9 (v) This remedy for the court's failure to provide the notification is 10 required notwithstanding any prejudice requirement.

11 (d) No court may rely on the existence of a notification given under 12 this subdivision in considering whether a defendant suffered prejudice 13 or received meaningful representation under the constitution of this 14 state. Meaningful representation requires, at minimum, for defense 15 counsel to determine, advise, and negotiate effectively regarding the 16 immigration consequences of a defendant's charges, plea, or conviction.

17 § 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 18 have become a law; provided, however, that the amendments to subdivision 19 7 of section 220.50 of the criminal procedure law made by section one of 20 this act shall not affect the repeal of such subdivision and shall be 21 deemed repealed therewith.
