For the purposes of this section, an officer may rely on various factors to 33 34 determine a person's identity, including but not limited to personal 35 knowledge of such person, such person's self-identification, or photo-36 graphic identification. There is no requirement that a person present 37 photographic identification in order to be issued an appearance ticket 38 39 in lieu of arrest where the person's identity is otherwise verifiable; however, if offered by such person, an officer shall accept as evidence 40 of identity the following: a valid driver's license or non-driver iden-41 tification card issued by the commissioner of motor vehicles, the feder-42 al government, any United States territory, commonwealth or possession, 43 44 the District of Columbia, a state government or municipal government within the United States or a provincial government of the dominion of 45 Canada; a valid passport issued by the United States government or any 46 47 other country; an identification card issued by the armed forces of the United States; a public benefit card, as defined in paragraph (a) of 48 49 subdivision one of section 158.00 of the penal law; 50 (iv) the person is charged with a crime between members of the same family or household, as defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of 51 52 this chapter; (v) the person is charged with a crime defined in article 130 of the 53 54 penal law; (vi) it reasonably appears the person should be brought before the 55

4	suspend or revoke his or her driver license;

6	behavior of the individual in the present contact with the officer and
7	facts regarding the person's condition that indicates a sign of distress
8	to such a degree that the person would face harm without immediate
9	medical or mental health care, that bringing the person before the court
10	would be in such person's interest in addressing that need; provided,
11	however, that before making the arrest, the officer shall make all
12	reasonable efforts to assist the person in securing appropriate
13	services;
14^{13}	(ix) the person is eighteen years of age or older and charged with
15	criminal possession of a weapon on school grounds as defined in section

20 27	following an arrest without a warrant, as prescribed in subdivision two
2.8	of section 150.20 of this article, may be made conditional upon the 20 29	posting of a sum of money, known as pre-arraignment bail. In such case,
30	the bail becomes forfeit upon failure of such person to comply with the 31	directions of the appearance ticket. The person posting such bail must
32	complete and sign a form which states (a) the name, residential address
33	and occupation of each person posting cash bail; and (b) the title of 34	the criminal action or proceeding involved; and (c) the offense or 35	offenses which are the subjects of the action or proceeding involved,

37	principal and the nature of his or her involvement in or connection with 38	such action or proceeding; and (e) the date of the principal's next
39	appearance in court; and (f) an acknowledgement that the cash bail will 40	be forfeited if the principal does not comply with the directions of the 41	appearance ticket; and (q) the amount of money posted as cash bail. Such 42	pre-arraignment bail may be posted as provided in subdivision two or 43	three of this section.
44	2. A desk officer in charge at a police station, county jail, or 45	police headquarters, or any of his or her superior officers, may in such
46	place, fix pre-arraignment bail, in an amount prescribed in this subdi-
47	vision, and upon the posting thereof must issue and serve an appearance
48	ticket upon the arrested person, give a receipt for the bail, and
49	release such person from custody. Such pre-arraignment bail may be fixed
50	in the following amounts:
50 51	(a) If the arrest was for a class E felony, any amount not exceeding
52	seven hundred fifty dollars.
53	(b) If the arrest was for a class A misdemeanor, any amount not
53 54	exceeding five hundred dollars.
54	(c) If the arrest was for a class B misdemeanor or an unclassified

56 misdemeanor, any amount not exceeding two hundred fifty dollars.

1	(d) If the arrest was for a petty offense, any amount not exceeding
2	one hundred dollars.
3	3. A police officer, who has arrested a person without a warrant
4	pursuant to subdivision two of section 150.20 of this article for a
5	traffic infraction, may, where he or she reasonably believes that such
6	arrested person is not licensed to operate a motor vehicle by this state
7	or any state covered by a reciprocal compact guaranteeing appearance as
8	is provided in section five hundred seventeen of the vehicle and traffic
9	law, fix pre-arraignment bail in the amount of fifty dollars; provided,
10	however, such bail shall be posted by means of a credit card or similar 11	device. Upon the posting thereof, said officer must issue and serve an 12	appearance ticket upon the arrested person, give a receipt for the bail,
13	and release such person from custody.
14	4. The chief administrator of the courts shall establish a system for 15	the posting of pre-arraignment bail by means of credit card or similar

18	department, agency, board, commission or public authority having police
19	officers who fix pre-arraignment bail as provided herein may elect to 20	use the system established by the chief administrator or may establish 21	such other system for the posting of pre-arraignment bail by means of 22	credit card or similar device as he or she may deem appropriate.

releasing the principal on the principal's own recognizance [or releas-1 ing the principal under non-monetary conditions]. 2 6. "Order of recognizance or bail" means a securing order releasing a 3 4 principal on the principal's own recognizance or [under non-monetary 5 conditions or, where authorized,] fixing bail. б 7. "Application for recognizance or bail" means an application by a 7 principal that the court, instead of committing the principal to or 8 retaining the principal in the custody of the sheriff, either release the principal on the principal's own recognizance[, release under non-9 10 monetary conditions, or, where authorized,] or fix bail. "Bail" means cash bail[$_{7}$] or a bail bond [or money paid with a 11 9. 12 credit card]. § 10. Section 510.10 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by 13 14 section 2 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, subdivision 1 15 as amended by section 1 of subpart C of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2022, subdivision 4 as amended by section 2 of part UU of chap-16 17 ter 56 of the laws of 2020, and paragraphs (s) and (t) of subdivision 4 as amended and paragraph (u) of subdivision 4 as added by section 2 of 18 subpart B of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2022, is amended to 19 20 read as follows: 21 § 510.10 Securing order[+ when required; alternatives available; stand-22 ard to be applied]. 23 1. When a principal, whose future court attendance at a criminal 24 action or proceeding is or may be required, initially comes under the 25 control of a court, such court shall[, in accordance with this title,] by a securing order, either release the principal on the principal's own 26 27 recognizance, [release the principal under non-monetary conditions, or, 28 where authorized,] fix bail or commit the principal to the custody of the sheriff. [In all such cases, except where another type of securing 29 order is shown to be required by law, the court shall release the prin-30 31 cipal pending trial on the principal's own recognizance, unless it is demonstrated and the court makes an individualized determination that 32 the principal poses a risk of flight to avoid prosecution. If such a 33 34 finding is made, the court must select the least restrictive alternative and condition or conditions that will reasonably assure the principal's 35 return to court. The court shall explain its choice of release, release 36 37 with conditions, bail or remand on the record or in writing. In making its determination, the court must consider and take into account avail-38 39 able information about the principal, including: (a) The principal's activities and history; 40 41 (b) If the principal is a defendant, the charges facing the principal; 42 (c) The principal's criminal conviction record if any; (d) The principal's record of previous adjudication as a juvenile 43 44 delinquent, as retained pursuant to section 354.1 of the family court 45 act, or, of pending cases where fingerprints are retained pursuant to 46 section 306.1 of such act, or a youthful offender, if any; 47 (c) The principal's previous record with respect to flight to avoid 48 criminal prosecution; 49 (f) If monetary bail is authorized, according to the restrictions set forth in this title, the principal's individual financial circumstances, 50 and, in cases where bail is authorized, the principal's ability to post 51 52 bail without posing undue hardship, as well as his or her ability to 53 obtain a secured, unsecured, or partially secured bond; 54 (g) Any violation by the principal of an order of protection issued by 55 any court; 56 (h) The principal's history of use or possession of a firearm;

1	(i) Whether the charge is alleged to have caused serious harm to an
2	individual or group of individuals; and
3	(j) If the principal is a defendant, in the case of an application for 4	a securing order pending appeal, the merit or lack of merit of the 5	appeal.
б	2. A principal is entitled to representation by counsel under this
7	chapter in preparing an application for release, when a securing order
8	is being considered and when a securing order is being reviewed for
9	modification, revocation or termination. If the principal is financially
10	unable to obtain counsel, counsel shall be assigned to the principal.
11	3. In cases other than as described in subdivision four of this
12	section the court shall release the principal pending trial on the prin-
13	cipal's own recognizance, unless the court finds on the record or in 14	writing that release on the principal's own recognizance will not
15	reasonably assure the principal's return to court. In such instances,
16	the court shall release the principal under non-monetary conditions,
17	selecting the least restrictive alternative and conditions that will 18	reasonably assure the principal's return to court. The court shall 19	explain its choice of alternative and conditions on the record or in 20	writing.
21	4. Where the principal stands charged with a qualifying offense, the
22	court, unless otherwise prohibited by law, may in its discretion release
23	the principal pending trial on the principal's own recognizance or under
24	non-monetary conditions, fix bail, or, where the defendant is charged
25	with a qualifying offense which is a felony, the court may commit the 26	principal to the custody of the sheriff. A principal stands charged with 27	a qualifying offense for the purposes of this subdivision when he or she 28	stands charged with:
29	(a) a felony enumerated in section 70.02 of the penal law, other than 30	robbery in the second degree as defined in subdivision one of section
31	160.10 of the penal law, provided, however, that burglary in the second
32	degree as defined in subdivision two of section 140.25 of the penal law
33	shall be a qualifying offense only where the defendant is charged with 34	entering the living area of the dwelling;
35	(b) a grime involving witness intimidation under section 215.15 of the

46	hundred thirty of such law;
47	(f) conspiracy in the second degree as defined in section 105.15 of 48	the penal law, where the underlying allegation of such charge is that

	(r) any felony offense committed by the principal while serving a

For the purposes 15 of this subparagraph, any of the underlying crimes need not be a qualifying offense as defined in this subdivision. For the purposes of this 16 17 paragraph, "harm to an identifiable person or property" shall include but not be limited to theft of or damage to property. However, based 18 upon a review of the facts alleged in the accusatory instrument, if the 19 court determines that such theft is negligible and does not appear to be 20 in furtherance of other criminal activity, the principal shall be 21 22 released on his or her own recognizance or under appropriate non-mone-23 tary conditions; or (u) criminal possession of a weapon in the third degree as defined in 24 25 subdivision three of section 265.02 of the penal law or criminal sale of a firearm to a minor as defined in section 265.16 of the penal law. 26 27 5. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions three and four of this section, with respect to any charge for which bail or remand is not 28 ordered, and for which the court would not or could not otherwise 29 require bail or remand, a defendant may, at any time, request that the 30 court set bail in a nominal amount requested by the defendant in the 31 32 form specified in paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section 520.10 of this title; if the court is satisfied that the request is voluntary, the 33 court shall set such bail in such amount. 34 6_{+}] When a securing order is revoked or otherwise terminated in the 35 36 course of an uncompleted action or proceeding but the principal's future 37 court attendance still is or may be required and the principal is still under the control of a court, a new securing order must be issued. When 38 the court revokes or otherwise terminates a securing order which commit-39 ted the principal to the custody of the sheriff, the court shall give 40 written notification to the sheriff of such revocation or termination of 41 42 the securing order. 43 2. The court shall release the principal on personal recognizance or 44 on bail unless the court makes an individualized determination that: 45 (a) the principal poses a risk of flight to avoid prosecution; (b) the principal poses a risk of failing to appear in court based on the prin-46 47 cipal's record of a prior criminal conviction or failure to appear in 48 prior court proceedings; or (c) the principal poses a risk of endanger-49 ing the safety of any other person or the community. If the court finds that the principal poses a risk of flight or a risk of failure to appear 50 but does not pose a risk of endangering the safety of any other person 51 52 or the community, the court shall release the principal subject to the lowest reasonable bail and/or the least restrictive further condition or 53 54 combination of conditions that will reasonably ensure the appearance of the principal considering the nature and circumstances of the charged 55 offense, the weight of the evidence, the history and characteristics of 56

1	the principal, and the nature and seriousness of the danger posed by the
2	principal's release. If the court determines that no condition or combi-
3	nation of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the prin-
4	cipal and the safety of any other person of the community, the court
5	shall order detention without bail.
б	3. If the principal is arrested during the interim period while await-
7	ing a preliminary hearing or trial, the court shall revoke or otherwise
8	terminate the securing order and issue a new securing order taking into 9	account the subsequent arrest.
10	4. (a) All securing orders issued under this section where the princi-
11	pal is incarcerated solely because of said order shall be reviewed and 12	re-evaluated by the court no later than:
13	(i) every four weeks thereafter where a class A misdemeanor is the 14	highest grade offense;
15	(ii) every six weeks thereafter where a class E felony is the highest 16	grade offense;
17	(iii) every eight weeks thereafter where a class D felony is the high-
18	est grade offense;
19	(iv) every ten weeks thereafter where a class C felony is the highest 20	grade offense; or
21	(v) every twelve weeks thereafter where a class B felony is the high-
22	est grade offense.
23	(b) Upon such review or re-evaluation, the court shall reconsider
24	whether the principal should be released on personal recognizance or 25	upon posting reduced bail in the interests of justice after considering 26	the length of time the principal has already been incarcerated, the
27	likely sentence that would be imposed if the principal were found guilty
28	or plead guilty to the charged offense, the nature and circumstances of 29	the charged offense, the weight of the evidence, the history and charac-
30	teristics of the principal, the nature and seriousness of the danger
31	posed by the principal's release, and whether the principal should be
32	released subject to a further condition, or combination of conditions,
33	that reasonably justifies the release of the principal on personal
34 25	recognizance or reduced bail, and such other factors in the interests of 35	justice as reasonably determined by the court based on an individualized
36	determination as to whether and to what extent that the principal
37	continues to pose a risk of flight to avoid prosecution, continues to 38 39	pose a risk of failing to appear in court based on the principal's record of a prior criminal conviction or failure to appear in prior
40	court proceedings, or continues to pose a risk of endangering the safety
41	of any other person or the community. If the court determines that no
42	condition or combination of conditions will reasonably ensure the 43	appearance of the principal and the safety of any other person of the 44	community, the court shall continue to detain the principal without bail
45	or without a reduction in the amount of the bail.
46	§ 11. Section 510.20 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by
47	section 3 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to
48	read as follows:

Section 510.30 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by § section 5 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, subdivision 1 13 14 as amended by section 2 of subpart C of part UU of chapter 56 of the 15 laws of 2022, is amended to read as follows: § 510.30 Application for [securing order] recognizance or bail; rules of 16 17 law and criteria controlling determination. 18 1. Determinations of applications for recognizance or bail are not in all cases discretionary but are subject to rules, prescribed in article 19 20 five hundred thirty of this title and other provisions of law relating 21 to specific kinds of criminal actions and proceedings, providing (a) 22 that in some circumstances such an application must as a matter of law be granted, (b) that in others it must as a matter of law be denied and 23 the principal committed to or retained in the custody of the sheriff, 24 and (c) that in others the granting or denial thereof is a matter of 25 26 judicial discretion. 27 2. To the extent that the issuance of an order of recognizance or bail 28 and the terms thereof are matters of discretion rather than of law, an 29 application is determined on the basis of the following factors and 30 criteria: 31 (a) With respect to any principal, the court [in all cases, unless 32 otherwise provided by law, must [impose the least restrictive] consider 33 the kind and degree of control or restriction that is necessary to 34 secure the principal's return to court when required. In determining 35 that matter, the court must, on the basis of available information, 36 consider and take into account [information about the principal that is 37 relevant to the principal's return to court, including]: 38 [(a) The principal's activities and history; 39 (b) If the principal is a defendant, the charges facing the principal; (c) (i) The principal's character, reputation, habits and mental 40 condition; 41 42 (ii) The principal's employment and financial resources; 43 (iii) The principal's family ties and the length of his or her resi-44 dence if any in the community; 45 (iv) The principal's criminal [conviction] record if any; 46 [(d)] (v) The principal's record of previous adjudication as a juve-47 nile delinquent, as retained pursuant to section 354.2 of the family 48 court act, or, of pending cases where fingerprints are retained pursuant 49 to section 306.1 of such act, or a youthful offender, if any; [(e)] (vi) The principal's previous record if any in responding to 50 51 court appearances when required or with respect to flight to avoid crim-52 inal prosecution; [(f) If monetary bail is authorized, according to the restrictions set 53 54 forth in this title, the principal's individual financial circumstances, and, in cases where bail is authorized, the principal's ability to post 55

2	obtain a secured, unsecured, or partially secured bond;
3	(vii) Where the principal is charged with a crime or crimes
4	against a member or members of the same family or household as that term
5	is defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of this title, the
б	following factors:
7 8	(A) any violation by the principal of an order of protection issued by 8 9	any court; and
	<pre>[(h)] (B) the principal's history of use or possession of a firearm; [(i) whether the charge is alleged to have caused serious harm to an</pre>
11	individual or group of individuals; and
12	(;) If the principal is a defendant, the weight of the 13	evidence against him or her in the pending criminal action and any other 14	factor indicating probability or improbability of conviction; or, in the 15	case of an application for [a securing order] bail or recognizance pend-
16	ing appeal, the merit or lack of merit of the appeal; and 17	(ix) If he or she is a defendant, the sentence which may be or has 18	been imposed upon conviction.
19	[2-] (b) Where the principal is a defendant-appellant in a pending
20	appeal from a judgment of conviction, the court must also consider the 21	likelihood of ultimate reversal of the judgment. A determination that 22	the appeal is palpably without merit alone justifies, but does not
23	require, a denial of the application, regardless of any determination
24	made with respect to the factors specified in paragraph (a) of this
25	subdivision [one of this section].
26	3. When bail or recognizance is ordered, the court shall inform the 27	principal, if the principal is a defendant charged with the commission
28	of a felony, that the release is conditional and that the court may 29	revoke the order of release and [may be authorized] to commit the prin-
30	cipal to the custody of the sheriff in accordance with the provisions of 31	subdivision two of section 530.60 of this [chapter] title if the princi-
32	pal commits a subsequent felony while at liberty upon such order.
33	§ 13. Section 510.40 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by
34	section 6 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019 and paragraph
35	(c) of subdivision 4 as amended by section 7 of part UU of chapter 56 of 36	the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:
37	§ 510.40 [Court notification to principal of conditions of release and
38	of alleged violations of conditions of release] Application
39	for recognizance or bail; determination thereof, form of 40	securing order and execution thereof.
41	1. An application for recognizance or bail must be determined by a
42	securing order which either:
43	(a) Grants the application and releases the principal on his or her
44	own recognizance; or
45	(b) Grants the application and fixes bail; or 46	(c) Denies the application and commits the principal to, or retains 47	him or her in, the custody of the sheriff.
48	2. Upon ordering that a principal be released on the principal's own
49	recognizance, [or released under non-monetary conditions, or, if bail
50	has been fixed, upon the posting of bail,] the court must direct the 51	principal to appear in the criminal action or proceeding involved when-
52	ever the principal's attendance may be required and to [be] render the 53	principal at all times amenable to the orders and processes of the 54	court. If such principal is in the custody of the sheriff or at liberty
55	upon bail at the time of the order, the court must direct that the principal be discharged from such custody or, as the case may be, that the 1 2 principal's bail be exonerated. 3 [2-] 3. Upon the issuance of an order fixing bail [-, where authorized]4 and upon the posting thereof, the court must examine the bail to deter-5 mine whether it complies with the order. If it does, the court must, in 6 the absence of some factor or circumstance which in law requires or 7 authorizes disapproval thereof, approve the bail and must issue a 8 certificate of release, authorizing the principal to be at liberty, and, if the principal is in the custody of the sheriff at the time, directing 9 10 the sheriff to discharge the principal therefrom. If the bail fixed is 11 not posted, or is not approved after being posted, the court must order that the principal be committed to the custody of the sheriff. [In the 12 event of any such non-approval, the court shall explain promptly in 13 14 writing the reasons therefor. 15 3. Non-monetary conditions of release shall be individualized and established in writing by the court. At future court appearances, the 16 17 court shall consider a lessening of conditions or modification of conditions to a less burdensome form based on the principal's compliance with 18 19 such conditions of release. In the event of alleged non-compliance with the conditions of release in an important respect, pursuant to this 20 subdivision, additional conditions may be imposed by the court, on the 21 record or in writing, only after notice of the facts and circumstances 22 of such alleged non-compliance, reasonable under the circumstances, 23 affording the principal and the principal's attorney and the people an 24 25 opportunity to present relevant, admissible evidence, relevant witnesses and to cross-examine witnesses, and a finding by clear and convincing 26 27 evidence that the principal violated a condition of release in an important respect. Following such a finding, in determining whether to impose 28 additional conditions for non-compliance, the court shall consider and 29 30 may select conditions consistent with the court's obligation to impose 31 the least restrictive condition or conditions that will reasonably 32 assure the defendant's return to court. The court shall explain on the 33 record or in writing the reasons for its determination and for any 34 changes to the conditions imposed. 35 4. (a) Electronic monitoring of a principal's location may be ordered 36 only if the court finds, after notice, an opportunity to be heard and an 37 individualized determination explained on the record or in writing, that the defendant qualifies for electronic monitoring in accordance with 38 subdivision twenty-one of section 500.10 of this title, and no other 39 realistic non-monetary condition or set of non-monetary conditions will 40 41 suffice to reasonably assure a principal's return to court. 42 (b) The specific method of electronic monitoring of the principal's 43 location must be approved by the court. It must be the least restrictive 44 procedure and method that will reasonably assure the principal's return 45 to court, and unobtrusive to the greatest extent practicable. 46 (c) Electronic monitoring of the location of a principal may be 47 conducted only by a public entity under the supervision and control of a county or municipality or a non-profit entity under contract to the 48 county, municipality or the state. A county or municipality shall be 49 authorized to enter into a contract with another county or municipality 50 in the state to monitor principals under non-monetary conditions of 51 52 release in its county, but counties, municipalities and the state shall not contract with any private for profit entity for such purposes. 53 Counties, municipalities and the state may contract with a private for-54 profit entity to supply electronic monitoring devices or other items, 55

56 provided that any interaction with persons under electronic monitoring

1	an the data made and he make markening shall be conducted selete by
1	or the data produced by such monitoring shall be conducted solely by employees of a county, municipality, the state, or a non-profit entity
2 3	under contract with such county, municipality or the state.
4	(d) Electronic monitoring of a principal's location may be for a maxi-
5	mum period of sixty days, and may be renewed for such period, after 6	notice, an opportunity to be heard and a de novo, individualized deter-
7	mination in accordance with this subdivision, which shall be explained
8	on the record or in writing.
9	A defendant subject to electronic location monitoring under this
10	subdivision shall be considered held or confined in custody for purposes
11	of section 180.80 of this chapter and shall be considered committed to 12	the custody of the sheriff for purposes of section 170.70 of the chap-
13	ter, as applicable.
14	5. If a principal is released under non-monetary conditions, the court
15	shall, on the record and in an individualized written document provided
16	to the principal, notify the principal, in plain language and a manner
17	sufficiently clear and specific:
18	(a) of any conditions to which the principal is subject, to serve as a
19	guide for the principal's conduct; and
20	(b) that the possible consequences for violation of such a condition
21	may include revocation of the securing order and the ordering of a more
22	restrictive securing order.]
23 24	§ 14. Sections 510.43 and 510.45 of the criminal procedure law are REPEALED.
24 25	§ 15. Section 510.50 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by
26	section 9 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to
20	read as follows:
28	§ 510.50 Enforcement of securing order.
29	[1.] When the attendance of a principal confined in the custody of the 30	sheriff is required at the criminal action or proceeding at a particular 31	time and place, the court may compel such attendance by directing the 32	sheriff to produce the principal at such time and place. If the princi-
33	pal is at liberty on the principal's own recognizance [or non-monetary
34	conditions] or on bail, the principal's attendance may be achieved or 35	compelled by various methods, including notification and the issuance of 36	a bench warrant, prescribed by law in provisions governing such matters
37	with respect to the particular kind of action or proceeding involved.
38	[2. Except when the principal is charged with a new crime while at
39	liberty, absent relevant, credible evidence demonstrating that a princi-
40	pal's failure to appear for a scheduled court appearance was willful, the court, prior to issuing a bench warrant for a failure to appear for
41 42	a scheduled court appearance, shall provide at least forty-eight hours
42 43	notice to the principal or the principal's counsel that the principal is 44	required to appear, in order to give the principal an opportunity to
45	appear voluntarily.]
46	§ 16. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 of section 520.10 of the criminal
47	procedure law, as amended by section 10 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the 48	laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:
49	(b) The court [shall] may direct that the bail be posted in any one of 50	[three] two or more of the forms specified in subdivision one of this
51	section, designated in the alternative, and may designate different
52	amounts varying with the forms[, except that one of the forms shall be 53	either an unsecured or partially secured surety bond, as selected by the
54	court].

§ 17. Section 530.10 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by 1 section 11 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to 2 3 read as follows: § 530.10 Order of recognizance [release under non-monetary conditions] 4 5 or bail; in general. 6 Under circumstances prescribed in this article, a court, upon applica-7 tion of a defendant charged with or convicted of an offense, is required 8 [to issue a securing order] or authorized to order bail or recognizance for the release or prospective release of such defendant during the 9 10 pendency of either: 11 1. A criminal action based upon such charge; or 12 2. An appeal taken by the defendant from a judgment of conviction or a 13 sentence or from an order of an intermediate appellate court affirming 14 or modifying a judgment of conviction or a sentence. 15 18. Subdivision 4 of section 530.11 of the criminal procedure law, S as amended by section 12 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 16 2019, 17 is amended to read as follows: When a person is arrested for an alleged family offense or an 18 4. 19 alleged violation of an order of protection or temporary order of protection or arrested pursuant to a warrant issued by the supreme or 20 21 family court, and the supreme or family court, as applicable, is not in 22 session, such person shall be brought before a local criminal court in the county of arrest or in the county in which such warrant is return-23 able pursuant to article one hundred twenty of this chapter. Such local 24 25 criminal court may issue any order authorized under subdivision eleven of section 530.12 of this article, section one hundred fifty-four-d or 26 27 one hundred fifty-five of the family court act or subdivision three-b of 28 section two hundred forty or subdivision two-a of section two hundred fifty-two of the domestic relations law, in addition to discharging 29 other arraignment responsibilities as set forth in this chapter. In 30 making such order, the local criminal court shall consider [de novo] the 31 32 bail recommendation [and securing order], if any, made by the supreme or 33 family court as indicated on the warrant or certificate of warrant. 34 Unless the petitioner or complainant requests otherwise, the court, in 35 addition to scheduling further criminal proceedings, if any, regarding 36 such alleged family offense or violation allegation, shall make such 37 matter returnable in the supreme or family court, as applicable, on the 38 next day such court is in session. 39 § 19. Subdivision 11 of section 530.12 of the criminal procedure law, 40 as amended by section 15 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows: 41 42 11. If a defendant is brought before the court for failure to obey any 43 lawful order issued under this section, or an order of protection issued 44 by a court of competent jurisdiction in another state, territorial or tribal jurisdiction, and if, after hearing, the court is satisfied by 45 46 competent proof that the defendant has willfully failed to obey any such 47 order, the court may: 48 (a) revoke an order of recognizance [or release under non-monetary 49 conditions] or revoke an order of bail or order forfeiture of such bail and commit the defendant to custody; or 50 51 (b) restore the case to the calendar when there has been an adjourn-52 ment in contemplation of dismissal and commit the defendant to custody; 53 or 54 (c) revoke a conditional discharge in accordance with section 410.70 55 of this chapter and impose probation supervision or impose a sentence of imprisonment in accordance with the penal law based on the original 1 2 conviction; or 3 (d) revoke probation in accordance with section 410.70 of this chapter and impose a sentence of imprisonment in accordance with the penal law 4 5 based on the original conviction. In addition, if the act which consti-6 tutes the violation of the order of protection or temporary order of 7 protection is a crime or a violation the defendant may be charged with 8 and tried for that crime or violation. 9 § 20. The opening paragraph of subdivision 1 of section 530.13 of the 10 criminal procedure law, as amended by section 14 of part JJJ of chapter 11 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows: 12 When any criminal action is pending, and the court has not issued a 13 temporary order of protection pursuant to section 530.12 of this arti-14 cle, the court, in addition to the other powers conferred upon it by 15 this chapter, may for good cause shown issue a temporary order of 16 protection in conjunction with any securing order committing the defend- 17 ant to the custody of the sheriff or as a condition of a pre-trial release, or as a condition of release on bail or an adjournment in 18 contemplation of dismissal. In addition to any other conditions, such an 19 20 order may require that the defendant: 21 § 21. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 8 of section 530.13 of the criminal 22 procedure law, as amended by section 13 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the 23 laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows: (a) revoke an order of recognizance[-24 release under non-monetary 25 conditions] or bail and commit the defendant to custody; or § 22. Section 530.20 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED 26 and a 27 new section 530.20 is added to read as follows: 28 § 530.20 Order of recognizance or bail; by local criminal court when 29 action is pending therein. When a criminal action is pending in a local criminal court, such 30 31 court, upon application of a defendant, must or may order recognizance 32 or bail as follows: 33 1. When the defendant is charged, by information, simplified informa-34 tion, prosecutor's information or misdemeanor complaint, with an offense 35 or offenses of less than felony grade only, the court must order recog-36 nizance or bail. 37 2. When the defendant is charged, by felony complaint, with a felony, the court may, in its discretion, order recognizance or bail except as 38 39 otherwise provided in this subdivision: 40 (a) A city court, a town court or a village court may not order recognizance or bail when (i) the defendant is charged with a class A felony, 41 42 or (ii) it appears that the defendant has two previous felony 43 convictions; 44 (b) No local criminal court may order recognizance or bail with 45 respect to a defendant charged with a felony unless and until: 46 (i) The district attorney has been heard in the matter or, after know-47 ledge or notice of the application and reasonable opportunity to be 48 heard, has failed to appear at the proceeding or has otherwise waived 49 his or her right to do so; and 50 (ii) The court has been furnished with a report of the division of 51 criminal justice services concerning the defendant's criminal record if 52 any or with a police department report with respect to the defendant's 53 prior arrest record. If neither report is available, the court, with the 54 consent of the district attorney, may dispense with this requirement; provided, however, that in an emergency, including but not limited to a 55

ment to timely furnish such report, such consent shall not be required if, for reasons stated on the record, the court deems it unnecessary. When the court has been furnished with any such report or record, it shall furnish a copy thereof to counsel for the defendant or, if the defendant is not represented by counsel, to the defendant.

6 3. The court shall make an individualized determination if: (a) the 7 defendant poses a risk of flight to avoid prosecution; (b) the defendant 8 poses a risk of failing to appear in court based on the defendant's 9 record of a prior criminal conviction or failure to appear in prior 10 court proceedings; or (c) the defendant poses a risk of endangering the 11 safety of any other person or the community. If the court finds that the 12 defendant poses a risk of flight or a risk of failure to appear but does not pose a risk of endangering the safety of any other person or the 13 14 community, the court shall release the defendant subject to the lowest 15 reasonable bail and/or the least restrictive further condition or combination of conditions that will reasonably ensure the appearance of the 16 17 defendant considering the nature and circumstances of the charged offense, the weight of the evidence, the history and characteristics of 18 the defendant, and the nature and seriousness of the danger posed by the 19 20 defendant's release. If the court determines that no condition or combi-21 nation of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the 22 defendant and the safety of any other person of the community, the court 23 shall order detention without bail.

4. If the defendant is arrested during the interim period while awaiting a preliminary hearing or trial, the court shall revoke or otherwise terminate the previous order and issue a new order taking into account the subsequent arrest.

28 5. (a) All orders issued under this section where the defendant is 29 incarcerated solely because of said order shall be reviewed and re-eval-30 uated by the court no later than:

31 (i) every four weeks thereafter where a class A misdemeanor is the 32 highest grade offense;

33 (ii) every six weeks thereafter where a class E felony is the highest 34 grade offense;

35 (iii) every eight weeks thereafter where a class D felony is the high- 36 est grade offense;

37 (iv) every ten weeks thereafter where a class C felony is the highest 38 grade offense; or 39 (v) every twelve weeks thereafter where a class B felony is the high-40 est grade offense.

41 (b) Upon such review or re-evaluation, the court shall reconsider 42 whether the defendant should be released on personal recognizance or 43 upon posting reduced bail in the interests of justice after considering 44 the length of time the defendant has already been incarcerated, the likely sentence that would be imposed if the defendant were found guilty 45 46 or pled guilty to the charged offense, the nature and circumstances of 47 the charged offense, the weight of the evidence, the history and charac-48 teristics of the defendant, the nature and seriousness of the danger posed by the defendant's release, and whether the principal should be 49 released subject to a further condition, or combination of conditions, 50 that reasonably justifies the release of the defendant on personal 51 52 recognizance or reduced bail, and such other factors in the interests of justice as reasonably determined by the court based on an individualized 53 54 determination as to whether and to what extent that the defendant continues to pose a risk of flight to avoid prosecution, continues to 55 pose a risk of failing to appear in court based on the defendant's 56 record of a prior criminal conviction or failure to appear in prior 1 court proceedings, or continues to pose a risk of endangering the safety 2 of any other person or the community. If the court determines that no 3 4 condition or combination of conditions will reasonably ensure the 5 appearance of the defendant and the safety of any other person of the 6 community, the court shall continue to detain the defendant without bail 7 or without a reduction in the amount of the bail. 8 § 23. The section heading and subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 530.30 9 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 17 of part JJJ of 10 chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, are amended to read as follows: Order of recognizance [, release under non-monetary conditions] or bail; 11 by superior court judge when action is pending in local criminal court. 12 1. When a criminal action is pending in a local criminal court, other 13 14 than one consisting of a superior court judge sitting as such, a judge 15 of a superior court holding a term thereof in the county, upon applica-16 tion of a defendant, may order recognizance[, release under non-monetary 17 conditions] or[, where authorized,] bail when such local criminal court: (a) Lacks authority to issue such an order, pursuant to the relevant 18 provisions of section 530.20 of this article; or 19 20 (b) Has denied an application for recognizance[-, release under-21 monetary conditions] or bail; or 22 (c) Has fixed bail[, where authorized,] which is excessive[; or 23 (d) Has set a securing order of release under non-monetary conditions which are more restrictive than necessary to reasonably assure the 24 25 defendant's return to court]. In such case, such superior court judge may vacate the order of such 26 27 local criminal court and release the defendant on his or her own recog-28 nizance [or under non-monetary conditions,] or [where authorized,] fix bail in a lesser amount or in a less burdensome form[, whichever are the 29 30 least restrictive alternative and conditions that will reasonably assure 31 the defendant's return to court. The court shall explain its choice of 32 alternative and conditions on the record or in writing]. 33 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section, 34 when the defendant is charged with a felony in a local criminal court, a 35 superior court judge may not order recognizance, [release under non-mon-36 etary conditions] or [, where authorized,] bail unless and until the 37 district attorney has had an opportunity to be heard in the matter and such judge [and counsel for the defendant have] has been furnished with 38 39 a report as described in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of subdivi-40 sion two of section 530.20 of this article. § 24. Section 530.40 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED and a 41 new section 530.40 is added to read as follows: 42 43 § 530.40 Order of recognizance or bail; by superior court when action is 44 pending therein. 45 criminal action is pending in a superior court, such court, When a 46 upon application of a defendant, must or may order recognizance or bail 47 as follows: 1. When the defendant is charged with an offense or offenses of less 48 49 than felony grade only, the court must order recognizance or bail. 2. When the defendant is charged with a felony, the court may, in its 50 discretion, order recognizance or bail. In any such case in which an 51 52 indictment (a) has resulted from an order of a local criminal court 53 holding the defendant for the action of the grand jury, or (b) was filed 54 at a time when a felony complaint charging the same conduct was pending in a local criminal court, and in which such local criminal court or a 55 superior court judge has issued an order of recognizance or bail which 56 is still effective, the superior court's order may be in the form of a 1 direction continuing the effectiveness of the previous order. 2 3 3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision two of this section, 4 a superior court may not order recognizance or bail, or permit a defend-5 ant to remain at liberty pursuant to an existing order, after the 6 defendant has been convicted of either: (a) a class A felony or (b) any 7 class B or class C felony defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law committed or attempted to be committed by a person eighteen 8 9 years of age or older against a person less than eighteen years of age. 10 In either case the court must commit or remand the defendant to the 11 custody of the sheriff. 12 4. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision two of this section, 13 a superior court may not order recognizance or bail when the defendant 14 is charged with a felony unless and until the district attorney has had 15 an opportunity to be heard in the matter and such court has been 16 furnished with a report as described in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph 17 (b) of subdivision two of section 530.20 of this article. 5. The court shall make an individualized determination if: (a) the 18 19 defendant poses a risk of flight to avoid prosecution; (b) the defendant 20 poses a risk of failing to appear in court based on the defendant's record of a prior criminal conviction or failure to appear in prior 21 22 court proceedings; or (c) the defendant poses a risk of endangering the safety of any other person or the community. If the court finds that the 23 defendant poses a risk of flight or a risk of failure to appear but does 24 25 not pose a risk of endangering the safety of any other person or the community, the court shall release the defendant subject to the lowest 26 27 reasonable bail and/or the least restrictive further condition or combination of conditions that will reasonably ensure the appearance of the 28 defendant considering the nature and circumstances of the charged 29 30 offense, the weight of the evidence, the history and characteristics of the defendant, and the nature and seriousness of the danger posed by the 31 32 defendant's release. If the court determines that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the 33 34 defendant and the safety of any other person of the community, the court 35 shall order detention without bail. 36 6. If the defendant is arrested during the interim period while await-37 ing a preliminary hearing or trial, the court shall revoke or otherwise terminate the previous order and issue a new order taking into account 38 39 the subsequent arrest. 7. (a) All orders issued under this section where the defendant is 40 incarcerated solely because of said order shall be reviewed and re-eval-41 42 uated by the court no later than: 43 (i) every four weeks thereafter where a class A misdemeanor is the highest grade offense; 44 45 (ii) every six weeks thereafter where a class E felony is the highest 46 grade offense; 47 (iii) every eight weeks thereafter where a class D felony is the high-48 est grade offense; (iv) every ten weeks thereafter where a class C felony is the highest 49 50 grade offense; or 51 (v) every twelve weeks thereafter where a class B felony is the high-52 est grade offense. likely sentence that would be imposed if the defendant were found quilty 1 or pled guilty to the charged offense, the nature and circumstances of 2 the charged offense, the weight of the evidence, the history and charac-3 4 teristics of the defendant, the nature and seriousness of the danger 5 posed by the defendant's release, and whether the principal should be 6 released subject to a further condition, or combination of conditions, 7 that reasonably justifies the release of the defendant on personal recognizance or reduced bail, and such other factors in the interests of 8 9 justice as reasonably determined by the court based on an individualized 10 determination as to whether and to what extent that the defendant 11 continues to pose a risk of flight to avoid prosecution, continues to 12 pose a risk of failing to appear in court based on the defendant's record of a prior criminal conviction or failure to appear in prior 13 14 court proceedings, or continues to pose a risk of endangering the safety 15 of any other person or the community. If the court determines that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably ensure the 16 17 appearance of the defendant and the safety of any other person of the 18 community, the court shall continue to detain the defendant without bail or without a reduction in the amount of the bail. 19 20 § 25.
