AN ACT to amend the civil practice law and rules, in relation to time limitations for filing claims for certain injuries

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 2 of section 214-c of the civil practice law
2 and rules, as added by chapter 682 of the laws of 1986, is amended to 3 read as follows:

4 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 214, the three year peri-5 od within which an action to recover damages for personal injury or 6 injury to property caused by the latent effects of exposure to any 7 substance or combination of substances, in any form, upon or within the 8 body or upon or within property must be commenced shall be computed from 9 the date of discovery of the injury by the plaintiff, which is presumed 10 to be the date the diagnosis was conveyed to the plaintiff or claimant, 11 or from the date when through the exercise of reasonable diligence such 12 injury should have been discovered by the plaintiff, whichever is earli-13 er.

14 § 2. Subdivision 4 of section 214-c of the civil practice law and 15 rules, as added by chapter 682 of the laws of 1986, is amended to read 16 as follows:

17 4. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions two and three of 18 this section, where the discovery of the specific toxic etiological 19 cause of the injury, including the source of the alleged harm, is 20 alleged to have occurred less than [~~five~~] ten years after discovery of

1 the injury or when with reasonable diligence such injury should have 2 been discovered, whichever is earlier, an action may be commenced or a 3 claim filed within [~~one year~~] three years of such discovery of the cause 4 of the injury; provided, however, if any such action is commenced or 5 claim filed after the period in which it would otherwise have been 6 authorized pursuant to subdivision two or three of this section the 7 plaintiff or claimant shall be required to allege and prove that techni-8 cal, scientific or medical knowledge and information sufficient to 9 ascertain the cause of his injury had not been discovered, identified or 10 determined, or that after diligent effort the cause was not known by the 11 plaintiff or claimant, prior to the expiration of the period within 12 which the action or claim would have been authorized and that he has 13 otherwise satisfied the requirements of subdivisions two and three of 14 this section.

15 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
