1 § 5102-a. Issues of fact and sufficiency of the evidence. Whether an 2 injury qualifies as a serious injury pursuant to subsection (d) of 3 section five thousand one hundred two of this article shall be a ques-
4 tion of fact. Where evidence is offered as to (a) whether an injury
5 qualifies as a serious injury pursuant to subsection (d) of section five 6 thousand one hundred two of this article, or (b) the causation of such 7 an injury, the sufficiency and weight of evidence offered, including but 8 not limited to that pertaining to qualitative and/or quantitative 9 assessment of injury, shall be reserved for the trier of fact.

10 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately and shall be applicable
11 to: (i) all actions and proceedings commenced on or after the effective 12 date of this act; and (ii) all actions and proceedings commenced prior 13 to the effective date of this act and pending on the effective date of 14 this act, where as of such date a trial of the issues thereon has not 15 yet commenced and a dispositive motion has not yet been filed.
