AN ACT to amend the civil service law, in relation to the termination of law enforcement officer benefits for malfeasance or serious misconduct

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The civil service law is amended by adding a new section
2 108 to read as follows:

3 § 108. Termination of benefits; law enforcement officers. 1. Notwith-4 standing any other provision of law, any law enforcement officer that is 5 terminated and who (a) was dismissed for malfeasance or any other seri-6 ous misconduct, or (b) resigned or retired from such position while 7 under investigation for such malfeasance or other serious misconduct, 8 shall not be entitled to receive any retirement or other benefit or 9 payment of any kind.

10 2. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any law enforce-11 ment officer who is exonerated of each allegation against such officer 12 of such malfeasance or other serious misconduct.

13 3. For purposes of this section, the following terms shall have the 14 following meanings:

15 (a) "law enforcement officer" means a police officer as defined in 16 subdivision thirty-four of section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law;

17 (b) "malfeasance" means the commonly approved usage of "malfeasance"; 18 and

19 (c) "serious misconduct" means improper or illegal actions taken by a 20 law enforcement officer in connection with such officer's official 21 duties that could result in a miscarriage of justice or discrimination, 22 including, but not limited to, (i) a conviction of a felony, (ii) fabri-23 cation of evidence, (iii) repeated use of excessive force, (iv) accept-24 ance of a bribe, or (v) the commission of fraud.

25 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
